

THREE POWERS ACCEPT BRITISH OFFER Fighting In Rhineland; Mobs Rob Stores

Condition Placed On Acceptance of the Plan

LONDON, October 26.—(By the Associated Press)—France, Belgium and Italy have accepted the British offer for a reparations conference with the understanding that it shall take the form of a committee of experts under the authority of the present international reparations commission.

It is understood the British members will be the same as those who served last year on the bankers' committee on which the United States was represented by France.

It was thought that Berlin would be chosen as the seat of the conference, since the chief function of the committee would be to inquire into Germany's financial assets.

A section of the French, Belgian and Italian personnel is expected to be completed shortly.

FRANCE WANTS EXPERTS
PARIS, October 26.—(By the Associated Press)—The French government is willing that an international committee of experts be named by the reparations commission be called to consider the question of reparations in conformity with the treaty of Versailles.

The French government, it was said, is anxious to have the committee be most happy if the government of the United States would name an expert to participate in such a conference.

Things Conference Near
LONDON, October 26.—(By the Associated Press)—Official British opinion concerning the response of Secretary of State Hughes to Lord Curzon's reparations conference invitation is cautious and reserved.

Broadly however there is a feeling in the government departments that Curzon's clear cut declaration of intent to international conference on reparations appreciably nearer.

Bar Drawing
From Nude
NEW YORK, October 26.—(By the Associated Press)—Drawing from the nude in the art class at the new City High School, Brooklyn, has been declared as the result of protests by teachers and parents.

Under J. A. Ach, the principal, said that the drawing from nude models had been in the class for years without incident.

The pupils have been serious students and we have kept no curiosity seekers," he said. "There has been no complaint either from the girls or from the board of education."

U. S. Ready To Enter Indemnity
Parley Providing All Allies Attend
WASHINGTON, October 26.—(By the Associated Press)—Although the American government stands ready to enter a European reparations conference having a full attendance of all powers, it is not willing to agree beforehand to a meeting to which it might be empty chairs.

There were indications today, however, that with the subject re-opened, important developments might follow.

With Great Britain apparently friendly to the conference principle, attention now turns to France whose objections heretofore have made a full participation of all the allies in such a consultation impossible.

Officials seem inclined to await some official expression from Paris before they venture an opinion as to whether the British foreign secretary's venture has succeeded or failed.

Despite their reticence, officials manifestly are pleased that official notice has been taken of Secretary Hughes' New Haven suggestion and that British officials at least have seen in it the possibility of a final solution.

The position of the state department is that Mr. Hughes' reply to the British foreign minister, made public last night, should be left to speak for itself as a reiteration of the American policy.

It is pointed out that the subject of current discussion on the whole is of no great importance to the United States to help in any practical way by re-imposing the reparations declaration of New Haven last December in favor of an "advisory" committee by impartial experts, and by setting forth again this government's strong conviction that all the allied nations must participate if the reparations conference proposal is to be crowned with success.

It was added that Premier Poincaré, in the name of the French government, already had informed Secretary of State Hughes that he would accept an international commission of experts to determine Germany's capacity to pay, but that they must be named by the reparations commission.

Underwood Has Started Something For Party

BY DAVID LAWRENCE
(Copyright, 1923)

WASHINGTON, Oct. 26.—Senator Oscar Underwood, of Alabama, has started something that may make the Democratic National Convention of 1924 as spectacular and dramatic as the party convulse of 1912 in Baltimore.

He has begun an appeal to the South to back a Southern man for the Presidential nomination.

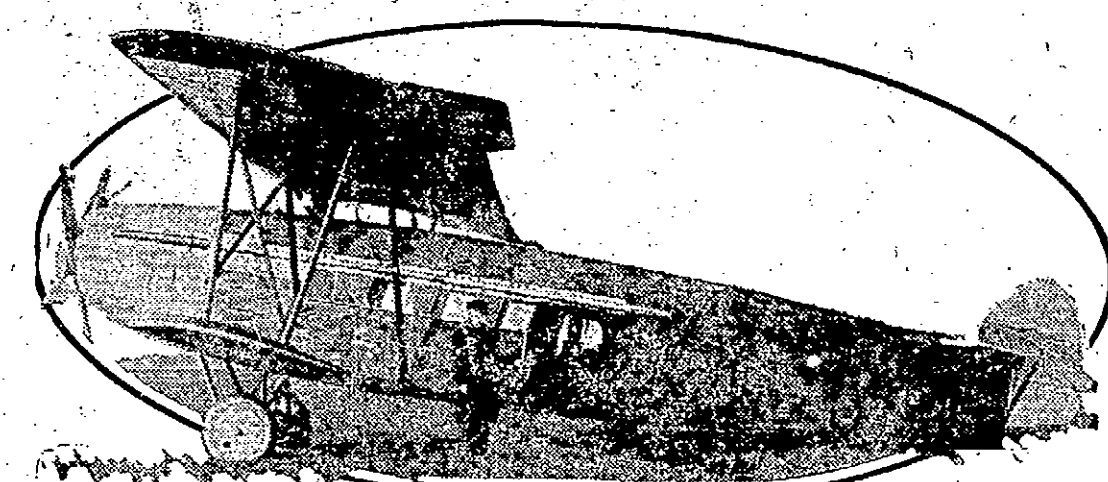

Under the rules of Democratic conventions, it takes two thirds vote to nominate so if Mr. Underwood can muster more than one third his friends would be in a position to prevent the nomination of anyone else until the merits of the Underwood candidacy had been thoroughly canvassed by the delegates.

But Mr. Underwood's campaign may do more.

It already is making an invasion of states that might be expected to send delegations instructed for William Gibbs McAdoo, former Secretary of the Treasury, who was born in Tennessee, and whose hold on the

ELECTRICAL WIZARD DIES

Get Wireless Message 11 Degrees From Pole

AVALON, SANTA CATALINA ISLAND, CALIF., October 26.—Direct radio communication with a ship only eleven degrees from the North Pole was established here yesterday for a few moments, according to Major Lawrence Mott, of the United States Army Signal Corps, who announced that he had exchanged wireless messages with the radio operator of the Donald R. McMillan Polar Expedition.

The McMillan expedition vessel Bowdoin, he said, responding to his signals, sent the following message:

"Winter here with weather below zero and heavy snow. The sun was up for a few minutes today for the last time. All well. We are eleven degrees from the North Pole."

There were indications today, however, that with the subject re-opened, important developments might follow.

Now, Don't All Rush To Santa Barbara!

SANTA BARBARA, CALIF., October 26.—(By the Associated Press)—Holding a lie, nature on the ocean beach in the evenings and early morning may become the custom in this city, as it has been discovered that the old ordinance in force in Santa Barbara does not require that bathing suits be worn at night. The law provides that suits must be worn between the hours of six o'clock in the morning and eight o'clock in the evening.

It makes no provision for suits for the rest of the twenty-four hours. It has been known for some time that bathing parties have been held sans suits, but it was not known that the return to ancient customs had legal backing.

Walton Barred From Governors Chair By Court

OKLAHOMA CITY, OKLA., October 26.—(By the Associated Press)—Defeated in his efforts to nullify the order suspending him, Governor J. C. Walton declares he will "continue to fight" the impeachment proceedings against him although declining to define his future intentions. In well informed quarters, however, it is said his supporters plan to launch a counter offensive by presenting impeachment resolutions in the lower house of the state legislature against M. E. Trapp, acting governor, some members of the senate and other state officials.

The suggestion was received in legislative circles in silence. Some followers of the situation are inclined to the belief that the governor or his supporters will not be responsible for proceedings against other officials.

Governor Walton lost his fight to retain the executive chair yesterday when the state supreme court is said a permanent mandate of prohibition sustaining the senate resolution ordering his suspension from office until tried on impeachment charges.

Already organized as a court of impeachment, the senate is waiting for the lower house to complete consideration of eight remaining impeachment charges of the twenty-two drafted in its committee report before setting a trial date. It is believed the house will complete the work late today.

Seven articles approved yesterday brought to fourteen the number of charges now making up the impeachment bill against the executive.

The latest allegations are that he prohibited expression of the law of capital punishment; that he proclaimed martial law in the city of Tulsa, Tulsa county, Oklahoma county, and the entire state without cause; (four separate articles); that he illegally appointed a state legislator as district judge and that he appointed a large number of persons to state positions without authority of law.

Lieutenant Governor Trapp formally assumed the acting governorship last night.

Enthusiasm On Boys' Week
CINCINNATI, O., October 26.—(By the Associated Press)—For more enthusiasm has been shown in Cincinnati this year, for boys' week, than in any previous year, and indications were that hundreds more boys and fathers would participate.

The celebration opened with an egg hunt at Eden Park this morning and this afternoon the boys will parade through the downtown streets.

One of the features will be the pilgrimage to Mount Storm Park in Clifton Saturday night as a memorial to Theodore Roosevelt, idol of American boyhood. The Cincinnati Boy Scouts will conduct the services.

Progressive Republicans Outline Program

WASHINGTON, October 26.—(By the Associated Press)—Constructive legislation, particularly with reference to the railroads and taxation, is the one aim of the organized group of progressive Republicans of the house, Representative Nelson, of Wisconsin, its chairman said today in outlining the general policy of the organization.

The hope is to obtain this without an open fight with the Republican organization Mr. Nelson declared but he emphasized that the group will not hesitate to fight if that becomes necessary.

Mr. Nelson who has been giving close attention to the railroad problem, states that in his own opinion there should be four major changes in the transportation act as follows:

Elimination of the so-called guarantee provision.

Valuation of the properties of the carriers on the basis of cash investment rather than the book value.

Abolition of the railroad labor board.

Restoration to the state commissions of their control over lines within their states.

With respect to taxation, Chairman Nelson favors a modified form of excess profits tax and a constitutional amendment against the levying of tax exempt securities.

Mr. Nelson sees little hope now of a general reduction of taxes, including those on small income.

Republicans Meet Stiffer Opposition To Secession

Waging Fierce Battle
BERLIN, October 26.—(By the Associated Press)—Reports from numerous places in the Rhineland indicate that the separatists are waging their battle for a British and republic with varied success and that local opposition by loyal Germans is becoming sturdier as the secessionists grow bolder.

Desultory fighting now extends from Aix-la-Chapelle to Speyer, the Palatinate having suddenly become the scene of Republican activities with its liberal being fostered by the French military authorities. This is said to be in the face of native indignation and opposition to a proposal championed by local Socialist leaders that the Palatinate be constituted an autonomous state in the republic.

Stores Pillaged
DUESSELDORF, October 26.—(By the Associated Press)—Stores and supplies in transit have been pillaged at Essen, Gelsenkirchen and other places, leading to numerous clashes with the police. One civilian was killed by the police at Katernberg.

At Bochum there was a pitched battle between 1,000 unemployed and police. Several persons were wounded.

Two men were killed in a fight between a band of demonstrators and the police at Barmen.

Measures have been taken at Duesseeldorf to supply the unemployed with provisions at reduced prices.

Not Much Gaid By New Republic
COBLENZ, October 26.—(By the Associated Press)—The new Rhineland republic is much where it was yesterday. The separatists maintain with difficulty their hold on Aix-la-Chapelle, Wiesbaden, Bonn, Mayence, Duisburg, Duren and Crefeld, while the strength of their position in Coblenz, which they re-occupied late last night, remains to be seen.

At most of these places, however, the Republicans are subject to a sort of guerrilla warfare on the part of their opponents, requiring frequent intervention by the French and Belgian troops to restore order. Only at Duesseeldorf do they seem to enjoy undisputed possession.

The separatists also say they have occupied a number of small towns such as Godesburg, Dornum, St. Gaur and Salskirchen. The city of Cologne is dependent on the latter town for part of its dairy products and foodstuffs.

After re-taking the provincial government building and postoffice here the provisional separatist government, headed by Joseph Mathies, visited Colonel Philippe, the French delegate on the high commission, on leaving the colonel's office, Mathies said that the Republicans handed the Rhineland commission a declaration requesting recognition of their regime in Coblenz promising to respect the authority of the occupation forces and to adopt a conciliatory attitude toward such inhabitants as have not yet rallied to their movement.

Coblenz was quiet early today but signs were not lacking that there would be a sharp reaction during the day which would put the separatists in a hard test.

F. B. Kellogg To Succeed Harvey

WASHINGTON, October 26.—(By the Associated Press)—Frank B. Kellogg, former United States senator from Minnesota, has been selected for American minister to London. He will succeed George Harvey, who recently resigned and the appointment is expected to become effective in the near future.

Mr. Kellogg, who was one of the little coterie of personal friends who accompanied the late President Harding on most of his trips from Washington, and was a frequent guest at the White House during the Harding administration, is a lawyer by profession. During the single term he served in the senate he devoted considerable attention to foreign affairs, was a leader of the "wild reservationists" in the Versailles treaty fight, and served as a member of the foreign relations committee.

In the 1922 campaign he was re-

Britain Accepts Twelve-Mile Limit Proposal

LONDON, October 26.—(By the Associated Press)—The British government has accepted in principle the proposal of the American government that vessels in American waters be searched for contraband liquor within twelve miles of the American shore. The expert committee of the imperial conference which has been studying the question under the chairmanship of Foreign Secretary Curzon, has drawn up plans which are believed to meet the essential points of the American request. The plans will be submitted next week to the full conference which is expected to approve them.

Thief Probably Needed Bath and a Change of "Linen"

A family washing and a wash tub formed the loot when a thief visited the stable in the rear of the Al Sherman home 825 Seventh street several nights ago. Several high priced blankets and five linens were in the wash which had been put in the stable early in the day. The thief is thought to have worked on the lock of the door leading to the alley earlier in the day, as the staple which was on the inside was found out in the alley, the door having been opened from the alley. A neighbor who was putting his machine into his garage about eleven o'clock noticed the door open and notified Mr. Sherman. It was thought that parts had been stolen from an automobile in the stable but a check up of accessories showed nothing was missing from the car. The clothes were valued about $25.

To Lay Cornerstone Sunday

The cornerstone for the new First Lutheran Church, Grant Street and Grandview avenue will be laid Sunday afternoon with appropriate ceremonies. The exercises will begin promptly at 2:35 o'clock. Several visiting ministers will be here to take part in the exercises, with Prof. Powell Buchner of Capital University, Columbus, delivering the main sermon. The program planned for the cornerstone laying follows: Hymn, by the assembly. Opening remarks and prayer, Rev. L. L. Laehr, of St. Paul's Lutheran Church, Trenton. Scriptural reading, Rev. Laehr. Selections, Portsmouth Gospel Quartette. Sermon, Rev. N. Rasmussen, of the First Lutheran Church, Hymn, assembly. Sermon, Prof. Powell Buchner, of Capital University, Columbus. Music, by the quartette. Offerings. Laying of the cornerstone, by Rev. C. A. Rhoad, of the local church, followed by the benediction.

Arrest Of Three Boys To Clear Up Local Robberies, Police Say

Too much talking by Earl Carrington, 14, of Ninth street, just west of Chillicothe, in the J. P. Schaefer and Sons grocery, 216 Market street, yesterday, led to his arrest and two of his friends this morning, when it was discovered that the Schaefer grocery had been robbed last night. Stewart Insko, claiming to be 18, and Homer Entler, 15, of Front street, near Court, were the other two arrested. The three boys have talked freely to the police, and through the alleged confessions have cleared up the mystery surrounding several other robberies that have been reported from business places and homes during the past six weeks. The Schaefer store, Steady Dry Goods Store, 710 Chillicothe street, George grocery, Grant and Franklin avenues, the Atlas store, and two homes on the Hilltop are places, the lads are said to have confessed to having visited recently. The Schaefer store was robbed of between $40 and $50 last night. About $40 in change was taken from a cigar box kept near the register, while about $8 was taken from the register. When the robbery was discovered this morning, the employees recalled what the Carrington boy had said yesterday. He had been looting about the store several days, it is said. Yesterday in talking to employees, he said he knew who "pulled" the Rottenghaus robbery several nights ago, when revolvers were taken. He said someone told him it was a boy named "Country". Pressed for other information, he feigned ignorance and said all he knew was "Country". This boy later proved to be Entler. Police at once went to work on the Carrington boy theory. He was soon found at the Henry Massie school, and when he started talking he implicated others, among them the Entler boy, who was also at school. Entler was taken into custody. Just a few minutes later Officers Miller and Pyles, who were working on the case, picked up Insko of Third and Washington streets, making the trio wanted complete. The boys were kept separated, Insko being locked up at the city jail, as he is 18. The other two were taken to the juvenile ward, county jail. The Carrington boy went with the officers to his home and he produced about $10 he had hidden there. The Carrington boy's father is employed at the Quassier junk shop and he told officers this morning that he could not control the boy, who sometimes stayed out all night. He said he would be glad to see the lad in a corrective institution, according to officers. The officers say Insko and Entler entered two homes on the hilltop, the boys claiming the houses were on High street. The same pair also claim they got into the Atlas store several nights ago and obtained $135. This morning before police arrested the boys Entler had gone to a bank to have the small change he had changed, into bills. Two of the boys had purchased considerable candy at the Kettle bakery. About 10 o'clock Mr. Steadley called at the police station and said that someone had been in his store last night and had escaped with a watch, a ring and a necklace. He said he was for and that he had found it in an alley. He was then brought in and, facing Mr. Steadley, admitted breaking into the store and taking the instrument. He said he hid at the Howard Bazler garage on Third street, where he looted most of his time. A visit there failed to produce the valuable instrument. Several of the rings and a necklace were found on the boys. Clear hands from the same kind of cigars stolen from the George grocery were found on the floor of the Bazler garage, and there it was learned the boys had passed around a number of the cigars. At the Schaefer store, the boys claim they forced a back door and as the dry goods store they claim they raised a rear window. Mr. Schaefer says he doesn't see how they got in the back door and Mr. Steadley says he doesn't see how they got the window raised as it is high off the ground. The officers hope to get considerable more information out of the boys within the next few hours. What one boy told the others deny and by talking to them separately the officers expect to get information that will clear up a number of the petty jobs in the city within the last six months. Some of the recent robberies it is thought the boys know about include the Army Goods Store, Gallia street; Whisker store, Horton on grocery, Gahm, Bradshaw, Magnet Pusateri, C. T. Davis homes, Ray's auto supply shop, Skings grocery, Hanson grocery, Horton grocery, Deyer grocery, and Ohio Valley Coffee Company. The Insko boy says he does not have a home. He and a stepfather and for this reason did not stay at home. He said he left his people in Huntington sometime ago and came to Portsmouth, as he spent most of his life there. His father's name was George Hudson, he says. The Carrington boy is known as "Skeeter". Carrington and "Country" is the nickname applied to Entler. The Carrington boy's mother died several years ago.

Tire Thieves Sweep Through County; Reap Rich Harvest

Tire thieves, working like a piece of smooth machinery, swept through Scioto county last night and this morning and reaped a rich harvest. Sheriff Dunham's office was notified immediately after the first robbery was discovered and an effort is being made to work up a tangible clue. Fourteen tires valued at over $200, two five gallon cans of oil, auto tools and accessories including spotlights and flashlights formed the loot of the thieves. They worked rapidly and must have had a truck in which to toss their stolen plunder as shortly after they raided garages on the West Side, they shifted their scene of operation to the Appel farm, near Lucasville. After forcing an entrance to Albert Turner's farm on the Buena Vista pike nine miles below the city this morning they jacked up his Ford machine removed all four tires from it, took the spare tire, two five gallon cans of oil, a spotlight, flashlight and other accessories. Mr. Turner found his tireless driver when he entered his garage this morning. The thieves then dropped down to Elbert Moore's home, half a mile west of the Turner home. They found Mr. Moore's truck parked near his home. They ran it down into a cornfield, jacked it up, stole the four tires and the spare tire. They then drove east to a point a mile this side of the Turner home and tried to force an entrance to Mike Swearingen's home but evidently were frightened away. Figuring that the haul was sufficient for that section of the city the thieves then shifted over to the Appel farm on the Scioto Trail. In an open shed nearby they spied Hiram Bryant's Ford car and jacking it up they removed all four tires and all tools. Bryant discovered his tireless machine when he went after it this morning. The thieves also took all the rims off the Turner, Moor and Bryant cars and apparently made a clean get-away. The men were seen going through Lucasville in a truck this morning and they probably were the gang of tire thieves, which reaped a rich harvest last night.

M. E. Conference Commends Coolidge

At the closing session of the Portsmouth District Conference and Rural Life Association of the M. E. Church at Mount Church Thursday afternoon the following important resolutions were adopted: Be it resolved by the Portsmouth District of the Ohio Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church in session at Portsmouth, Ohio, October 24, 25, 1925, that we most heartily commend the Hon. Calvin Coolidge, president of the United States of America, and Governor Vic Donahue, of Ohio, for aggressive and patriotic stand on behalf of Law Enforcement. First, because he has shown by his courageous attitude, a proper respect and regard for his oath of office and for the constitution of the United States of America, and. Second, because his stand shows a proper regard for the decent and law-abiding citizenship of this great nation, at the same time denying and comfort to the law-breaking elements of society. (Signed) JONATHAN B. HAWK, President. O. L. HALL, Secretary. Done this 25th day of October, 1925. We most heartily thank Rev. Cross and family and the members of Mount Church for the splendid hospitality which they have extended to the members of the District Conference and Rural Life Association. We commend Dr. Hawk and officers of the Rural Life Association for the helpful and inspiring program provided. We wish to extend our sincere thanks to Dr. Hollingshead for his efforts to interpret to us the World's Service Program. We extend our thanks to all those who took part in the program and brought to us messages of instruction and inspiration. The Portsmouth District Conference, by formal vote, also adopted the "World Service Program" of the Methodist Episcopal Church and pledged its loyal support. The Century program comes to an end with this conference year and the new benevolence program takes its place and will be called, "World Service."

Women Stage Real Battle

In North End; Two Fined

Mrs. Mabel Shabley, 714 Ninth street, and Miss Margaret Hunter, same address, were found to be guilty under charges of disorderly conduct and malicious destruction of property at their hearing in Municipal Court Friday and they were fined $11.20 and $25 on each of the two charges. The charges against the pair grew out of the women hurling bricks and rocks through windows at the home of Mrs. Gladys Millhauff, 1512 Eleventh street, when they went there at a late hour last night and caught Joe Shabley, husband of one of the women, being entertained there, it is claimed. After storming the house with insults, the Hunter woman, the hearing disclosed, attacked Mrs. Millhauff, she fled from the house and assaulted her. At the conclusion of the hearing the court told the young women staying at the Shabley home to either get a job and go to work or leave town. The court suspended $10 from each of the malicious destruction fines on condition that the defendants pay the damage resulting from their window smashing act.

EXTRA SPECIAL ATTRACTION

2000 feet showing the great International Running Race between the American Zev and England's thoroughbred, Papyrus, as it was run last Saturday at Belmont Park.

More than twenty Pathe News cameramen covered this race with their cameras, and it is shown in actual speed and also in slow motion.

NEW LAMP BURNS 94 PER CENT AIR

Beats Electric or Gas
A new lamp that gives an amazingly brilliant, soft, white light, even better than gas or electricity, has been tested by the U. S. Government and is leading universities and found to be superior to 10 ordinary oil lamps. It burns without odor, smoke or noise—no running up, is simple, clean, safe. Burns 94 per cent air and 6 per cent common kerosene (coal oil).
The inventor, E. A. Johnson, 609 W. Lake St., Chicago, Ill., is offering to send a lamp on 10 day's FREE trial, even to give one FREE to the first user in each locality who will help him introduce it. Write him today for full particulars. Also ask him to explain how you can get the agency, and without experience or money make $250 to $500 per month.—Advertisement.

W. Davis of West Virginia, as Mr. McAdoo, House Ford, Senator Harrison of Indiana and most of the others prominently mentioned for the Democratic nomination are allied with the drys.
Senator Underwood is one of the most popular men in Washington. He was an intimate friend of the late President Harding who appointed him a member of the American delegation which negotiated the Four Power Pact and the treaties on limitation of Naval armament. Members of Congress from the South and other parts of the country have a deep affection for Senator Underwood and usually Senators and Representatives have much to say about the naming of delegates to a National convention. The strength mustered by Mr. Underwood in the 1912 convention is still vivid in the memory of politicians and were it not for his willingness to release his delegates the nomination of Woodrow Wilson might not have been made.
Senator Underwood is stirring things up and making the Democratic race a real contest in contrast to the Republican situation which at the moment appears to be concentrated on the nomination of President Coolidge with relatively little opposition.

U. S. Ready

The British government, it was added, has not yet accepted this condition.

LONDON, Oct. 26.—(By the A. P.)—Correspondence issued by the foreign office today showing that the British government had seized the occasion of the first public statement by President Coolidge on the situation in Europe to send another formal invitation to the Washington conference to co-operate in a new conference in an attempt to settle the reparations difficulties came almost as a complete surprise to the public and newspapers. The secret had been well kept, especially considering the presence in London of all the empire representatives who must have been aware of the move, which undoubtedly was discussed in the confidential debates in the Imperial Conference on Foreign Affairs.

Lord Curzon's request for American participation in any form, either official or unofficial, or, alternatively, participation in an inquiry by a special commission appointed by the reparations commission. Whether the government's move was prompted by Gen. Smuts, or whether Gen. Smuts' famous speech was intended to lend weight to the government's move is not known, but it will be noted that Gen. Smuts' proposal was for a conference of all the powers, including the neutrals, not merely those interested in reparations.

Stresses Three Points.
In his reply to Lord Curzon, Secretary Hughes declares that the United States is willing to take part in an economic conference in which all the European allies directly concerned in German reparations participate for the purpose of ascertaining Germany's capacity to pay and an appropriate plan for payment. He emphasizes three points, however, first, that while the United States has no desire to see Germany relieved of her responsibility or obligations, reparations must be had for Germany's capacity to pay must be the fundamental condition of Germany's rehabilitation; second, that such confidence should be advisory, and third, that the question of the inter-allied debt is entirely separate from the question of reparations.

Skeptical of France, it still

SOAKS RIGHT IN AND LIMBERS UP STIFF JOINTS

Pharmacists call it "Joint-Ease" because it's for swollen, sore, painful, creaky joints. Only it took a good many years to get together a combination of pain subduing and swelling reducing agents declared to be the one remedy that almost instantly penetrates through skin and flesh and starts right in to make swollen, inflamed, creaky, pain racked joints as good as new.

They call this new and wonderful preparation "Joint-Ease" because the medical man who turned the trick, worked for years to perfect some low-priced remedy that would really benefit the millions of people who have one or more joints that need helpful attention.

So "Joint-Ease" is prepared only for people who have a swollen, painful, creaky, distorted or stiff joint, whether it be in knee, elbow, shoulder, ankle, neck or finger and whether it is caused by rheumatism or something else.

Of course, it can't help but quickly put an end to such superficial ailments as lumbago, neuralgia, neuritis, aching muscles, stitch in the side, crick in the neck or sore foot because of its penetrating action, but what it is really recommended for is joint ailments of any nature whatever.

Ask for a tube of "Joint-Ease." You can use it several times in one evening for quick results, because it goes right through the skin with only a few seconds rubbing. It surely is a swift penetrator and when it gets under the skin, it starts right in to clean up all joint trouble.

Fisher and Streich Pharmacy dispenses it daily for about 60 cents a tube, as do first class druggists everywhere.—Advertisement.

oppose any such suggestion, more especially as Mr. Hughes so firmly maintains the position that the question of the inter-allied debt must be treated separately from that of reparations, confirming that the new president has no more intention than his predecessor of forgiving the allied debts.

The publication of the correspondence was clearly planned to synchronize with the President's statement of his government's policy as regards the reparations question and to attract some of the lightning—to strike the government, on the realization that apart from this new effort to secure American co-operation the British government's policy is still that of waiting for France to move.

comes, explaining that huge sums must be raised to operate the government.

While no serious opposition to the re-election of Representative Gillet, of Massachusetts, as speaker, has developed on the Republican side, there has been talk at the capitol of possible states to oppose that formed by Gillet and Longworth. There also has been some gossip that Mr. Gillet may be removed as a candidate by his appointment by President Coolidge to an ambassadorship, perhaps that at London, which soon is to be vacated by George Harvey.

Possible states which have been suggested in the capital discussion are Burton, of Ohio, for speaker, and Graham, of Illinois, for floor leader, and also Madden, of Illinois, for speaker, and Wilson, of Connecticut, for leader.

Electrical

signals were very much encouraged.

As he lay in bed physically too weak to rise, his brain continued working and planning new electrical miracles. Workmen were busy constructing on top of one of the company's laboratories, a lightning laboratory, where the wind was intended to make the elements perform according to his whim. In this laboratory he planned to continue the experiments with thunderbolts with which he started the world a year or so ago. At that time in the presence of scientists and newspaper correspondents he produced a miniature thunder storm. The lightning bolts, and supposed bolts dashed down from an artificial heaven and struck for hours in a little village which had been built to give realism to the demonstration.

When death came Steinmetz was figuring on getting out of bed in a few days and resuming his experiments. Word that Steinmetz was dead caused consternation among General Electric Company employees, who regarded Steinmetz as a superman and looked eagerly forward to future miracles. He was 55 years of age. For 34 years he had worked in the United States following his immigration from Germany. He attained his greatest reputation during the past few years during most of which time he was chief consulting engineer of the General Electric Company.

Calumet Baking Powder is called "Best by Test" because actual baking tests are made right in the big Calumet factories—the largest of their kind on earth. Master bakers and a renowned domestic science expert make these tests which protect the quality and uniformity of Calumet.

Calumet is called "the World's Greatest Baking Powder" because it is used by more housewives—more chefs—more railroads—more restaurants—more hotels than any other brand.

Calumet is called the "Economy Baking Powder" because no other brand on the market will produce bakings at such a low cost. Its dependable and unflinching action means no loss of time, money or materials.

Calumet is called for in thousands of stores daily because a better leavener cannot—and is not made—because a large can contains full 16 ounces and some brands come in 12 ounce cans—once tried it is always used.

EVERY INGREDIENT USED OFFICIALLY APPROVED BY U. S. FOOD AUTHORITIES

Forbes Denies Charges Made By Mortimer

WASHINGTON, October 26.—(By the Associated Press)—From his place of seclusion here Charles H. Forbes, former director of the Veterans Bureau, issued a statement today denying as "utterly and absolutely false" the story of Elias H. Mortimer, of Philadelphia, before the senate investigating committee of alleged bribery and corruption in connection with contracts for Veterans Bureau Hospitals.

"I do not feel that I ought to make any statement in advance of the full trial given under oath on the witness stand," said Mr. Forbes' statement.

However, at the urging of my friends, and in response to inquiries from the press, I can not refrain from saying that every charge and every word of testimony, especially that of Elias H. Mortimer, reflecting on my personal or official integrity, are utterly and absolutely false and without the slightest foundation.

"The story of the receipt by me of a $5,000 bribe, was not only false, but so absurd as to be ridiculous."

"In reply to inquiries as to when I will testify I do not know, as that is entirely within the discretion of the committee."

The committee has decided to hear Mr. Forbes next week if he desires. Meanwhile, the former director is resting on the advice of his physicians, who have warned him against a probable recurrence of a serious heart attack unless he maintains absolute rest for the present.

Local Firm Had Display At Atlantic City Convention

John B. Knauss of The Portsmouth Stove and Range Co. has just returned from the American Gas Association Convention held on the steel pier in Atlantic City. The largest display of modern gas appliances ever shown was one of the features of the convention. The local company showed their new combination range and a full line of white porcelain gas ranges, with all modern improvements, such as oven regulators, dress tops, aluminum alloy ovens and a number of their own patented features. The display made a very favorable impression and the firm secured a number of orders from some of the largest buyers in the country.

Avoids Collision; Car Ditched

In attempting to avoid a collision with another machine at the underground crossing on Scioto Trail, this side of Lucasville, a Ford touring car driven by Charles Widdig dashed off the roadway and crushed into a ditch yesterday. The driver escaped unhurt and the machine, which was slightly damaged, was piled back on the road by Deputy Sheriff Elza Carter, who happened along.

Car Stolen; Recovered

A Star car owned by John Tussey, of 1820 Tenth street, was stolen last night from here; it was parked on Sixth street, near Chillicothe. This morning it was found at Fifth and Washington streets, with one spring slightly damaged.

Suicide Victim Formerly Lived Here

J. D. Mills, 47, mentioned in newspaper dispatches a week ago as having committed suicide by shooting himself at Columbus, it develops is a former Portsmouth man, having been employed by J. T. Carr, local jeweler, as an optician for about three years prior to 1917, when he left here. According to Columbus papers Mills took his own life in a corn field, near the Ohio State University Stadium. His home was at 56 Chittenden avenue, near the University, and besides a widow, Mills left one son and a daughter. The family lived on John street during their residence in Portsmouth, Mr. Carr says.

To Discuss German Note

PARIS, October 26.—(By the Associated Press)—The German note sent Wednesday to the reparations commission will be discussed by the commission next Tuesday. Louis Barthou, of France, president of the commission will propose to his English, Italian and Belgian colleagues, according to a semi-official note today, that the commission accept the proposition for the German representatives to be heard, such procedure being provided for by the treaty of Versailles. M. Barthou probably will voice the views of France as regards the ill-will Germany is considered hitherto have shown on the question of putting her finances in a healthy state and fulfilling her obligations. The delegates of the three other powers, it is said, are disposed to accept the proposed procedure.

May Sumit To Operation

John Bentley, 2202 Jackson street, who suffered a bruised knee about six weeks ago, was removed to the Fowler laboratory for an X-ray this morning. The knee is now giving him considerable trouble. Bentley was then removed to Hempstead hospital where the knee may be operated upon.

Haynes Too Busy To Think of Candidacy

COLUMBUS, O., October 26.—(By the Associated Press)—Federal Prohibition Commissioner Roy A. Haynes declared here today that he is so deeply engrossed in the duties and responsibilities of his office that "I have not given any definite consideration to the suggestion that I become a candidate for governor."

Commissioner Haynes is here attending a conference with Director J. E. Russell and Division Chief H. A. Drake, of the Ohio-Indiana-Southern Michigan and Special Assistant Commissioner E. L. Porterfield.

Commissioner Haynes said he believed his first duty is to "reflect the greatest possible credit on my state and party in my present position at Washington in the successful administration of a great work" and that he has "determined so long as I have these heavy responsibilities not to have my attention diverted."

The prohibition commissioner said he found throughout the state practically a non-partisan demand that the office of governor be exalted to a position it has enjoyed in the past and that "a man whose pre-eminence is unquestioned and whose election can guarantee a high grade,

Frank L. Packard Dies

COLUMBUS, O., October 26.—(By the Associated Press)—Frank L. Packard, prominent architect, died suddenly at his home shortly before noon today. It is believed that he suffered a stroke of apoplexy. He was 57 years old.

Mr. Packard was widely known over the state as an architect, having designed numerous public buildings in various cities. Many of the more prominent buildings in Columbus also were designed by him.

He was a member of the commission appointed by President Harding to construct this nation's exhibit at the international exposition in Rio De Janeiro, Brazil, two years ago.

Underwood Stumps Texas

DALLAS, TEXAS, October 26.—(By the Associated Press)—Oscar W. Underwood, United States Senator for Alabama, touring Texas in the interest of his Democratic presidential nomination left Dallas early today for San Antonio with eight platform addresses scheduled enroute.

To-morrow the senator will go to Orange and Sunday will visit cities of the Sabine district. At a press dinner last night the Alabamian spoke sympathetically of the so-called conservative citizen in American political life as one who desires to live his own life at peace with his neighbors. "We must go back toward individualism and away from this special legislation," he said, scoring what he termed a present day tendency toward group government.

Portsmouth Dry Goods Co's 7th Birthday Sale!

Seven years ago we opened this store and right from the start the people of Portsmouth and vicinity recognized that this was a store long felt needed in this town. The longer we have been here the more they have been convinced that this store was a necessity to this community. They have also found that by buying here they save money either by getting more goods than elsewhere for the same price or the same goods for less money. Another advantage found is that they save time when shopping here as all prices are rock bottom, no dickering about reductions, but one price to all. We claim for the same quality merchandise you can save from 10 to 25 percent, and on some things even more. The reason is this: We purchase all goods for spot cash and by buying an enormous quantity we are able to buy at lowest prices direct from manufacturers, and when selling all our goods are sold strictly cash, no charges, no delivery system, no high priced fixtures or store furnishings, all of which reduces expense and enables us to sell for much less than other stores.

The people of Portsmouth and vicinity have realized this from the start and by constantly comparing our values with those of other stores have found that what we claim is true:

As time went on we were compelled to enlarge the store so that now we occupy one of the largest store buildings in Portsmouth, 83 foot frontage with approximately 18,500 square feet of floor space. All this we owe to the generous patronage of the people of Portsmouth and vicinity for without their patronage we could not have progressed as we did.

In order to show our appreciation for this we are inaugurating the most gigantic, spectacular and sensational price slashing anniversary sale Portsmouth and vicinity has ever experienced. A sale that has never been equalled and in many days to come will have no peer. Your dollar never before could buy or expect to buy anywhere what it will during this celebration. No restrictions whatever. The PDG Company will continue to be the store for ALL THE PEOPLE ALL THE TIME.

Demonstration Sale

GARLAND TOMORROW Oct. 27 to Gas and Coal Ranges Saturday Nov. 3

A Special Display Of Stoves

Every good housekeeper in Portsmouth should be interested in this demonstration sale of Garland Gas and Coal and Combination Gas and Coal Ranges: A representative direct from the Garland Factory will be in charge to explain in detail every working part of the range and point out the Labor-Saving, Money-Saving Qualities of the "World's Best" Range. All ranges connected and piped FREE

$1 Cash

DELIVERS ANY "GARLAND" RANGE DURING THIS DEMONSTRATION AND SALE

One dollar cash payment guarantees prompt delivery, and the balance is arranged for in weekly or semi-weekly payments so you will not miss the money. This is our opportunity to own a "GARLAND" without the slightest inconvenience.

What a "Garland" Range Will Do In Your Home

Garland Ranges assure you better cooking and baking in less time and at less expense. They have ventilated ovens, and the best and simplest flue construction, all parts are of 18 gauge, one piece blue steel with surfaces unbroken by bending. The "Garland" Porcelain enamel is the best obtainable and the heavy one piece burner box is galvanized. Every piece, including all burners, removable without loosening a nut or bolt. The oven and boiler door safety catches prevent damage by explosion. In every way Garland Ranges live up to their reputation "The World's Best."

The "Garland Thermoven" Heat Regulator

It is no longer necessary to rely on the personal or individual skill of the cook to obtain a perfect baking or roasting. The "Garland" Thermometer Regulator Dial shows not only the different temperature "sets", but also gives a list of the different articles of foods usually cooked in the oven. All you have to do is to move the dial to "set" marked the kind of food you are cooking and go away and leave it in the oven, the correct length of time and you are guaranteed perfect baking or roasting, etc.

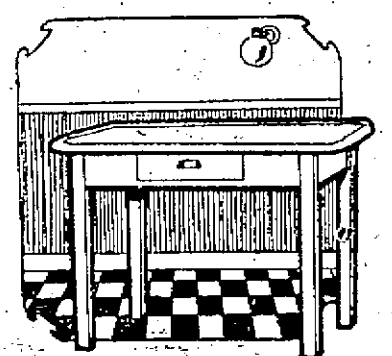

See the "Garland" Gas Table Ranges, with Porcelain Side Splashes and Door Panels. Specially Priced during this Demonstration Sale at $49.75

C. E.'s Will Visit Wellston

The Wellston Sentinel says: "First Presbyterian Church will be visited next Sunday evening by the Young People's Flying Squadron of Portsmouth Presbytery, an 'evangelistic campaign on wheels.' These young people, prominent in Christian Endeavor work for a number of years are touring Southern Ohio in the interest of the evangelistic campaign of the Presbyterian Church. They will be at First Presbyterian Church Sunday evening at 7 p. m."

In the party is Miss Mildred Purdum, an authority on young people's work and prominent in public school circles of Southern Ohio, and Miss Pearl Edgemoor, attorney, and a speaker of unusual ability. The closing address will be made by Wesley P. Nidenour, Portsmouth architect and a former president of the Scholastic County U. E. Union. Music will be under the direction of John A. Lloyd, with Miss Bertha Blood, soprano, and Miss Louise Jones, pianist, as his assistants.

Visited Here: Alfred E. Ward, sales manager for the Edgemoor Basket Company, Plymouth, Ind., left Thursday for this month, and, left Thursday for this month.

RED RASH BROKE OUT ON FACE

Was Very Itchy, Could Not Sleep. Cuticura Heals.

"A red rash broke out on my face and was very itchy. The more I scratched it the more it seemed to spread. I could not sleep nights as the irritation made me very restless, and my face looked horrid. I read an advertisement for Cuticura Soap and Ointment and sent for a free sample. After using it I found that the rash was drying up and disappearing as purchased more, which healed me." Finger Grafted On Hand; Chin Made For Boy

CHICAGO, October 26.—(By the Associated Press)—Tourists seeking the birthplaces of future famous Americans will visit no ancient houses hidden in ill-kept streets, no vine-covered log cabins keeping the memory of the great one's birth fresh in the minds of generations.

These distinctively American institutions have passed, according to Dr. Richard B. Smith, of Grand Rapids, Mich., eminent gynecologist attending the convention of the American College of Surgeons here.

The farmer boy as well as the boy in the city is seeing his first daylight in the maternity ward of a hospital. Dr. Smith declared. The call in the night does not come as often as it did in the country because the rural doctor is sending his patients to the hospital.

Science demands that every one be born in a clean, untrammeled hospital, thereby ruining the first pages of the orthodox biography of the great. The surgeon said. In many communities

Lloyd George Pays Tribute To America's Heroic Dead

WASHINGTON, October 26.—(By the Associated Press)—David Lloyd George, his introduction to official Washington completed, turned his thoughts today to the paying of homage to the memory of the heroic dead who have contributed so much to the greatness of America.

He arranged to go to Arlington National Cemetery to place a wreath upon the tomb of the Unknown Soldier. Then a visit to Mount Vernon and a like tribute paid at the tomb of Washington. These other precincts of the nation's great, the Washington monument and the Lincoln memorial, were on the route of his return drive.

As on his first day in the capital for the distinguished visitor today the program called for almost constant activity. Having called upon President Coolidge, Secretary Hughes and former President Wilson, yesterday, followed by luncheon at the White House with the president, the entire cabinet and other government officials and dinner with Secretary Mellon last night his engagements today started off with breakfast, in company with Dame Margaret and Miss Megan Lloyd George, as the guest of William Jennings Bryan in the diplomatic room of the New Willard.

In the afternoon Mr. Lloyd George had arranged to go to Walter Reed Hospital to meet some of the soldiers of the great war. A ten engagement as the guest of Henry Getty Chilton, Chaire d'Affaires of the British embassy, followed. In the evening he will attend a dinner given in his honor by Secretary Hughes. Mr. Lloyd George, it was said, was to meet President Coolidge again, and it was understood that the president would be present at tonight's dinner.

Carnation Milk
"From Contented Cows"

Fudge—2 cups sugar, 1/2 cup Carnation Milk, 1/2 cup cream of tartar, 2 tablespoons butter, 1/2 cup water, 2 squares chocolate. Put sugar, Carnation Milk, water and cream of tartar in a saucepan. Stir thoroughly. Place over a low fire. When nearly done, add chocolate and continue cooking until the candy forms a soft ball when dipped in cold water. Remove from fire. Cool partially, then stir vigorously. Turn into a greased pan.

There are many other recipes as good as this in the Carnation Cook Book. Send for it.

Houses To Be Built By Ford On Edison Plan, Wood-Concrete

DETROIT, Oct. 26.—Plans for the construction of 30,000 cement and wood houses to be built according to a process perfected by Thomas A. Edison, was announced by Henry Ford today. The houses will be built on a 5,000 acre tract south of the Dearborn plant of the Ford Motor Company, which was purchased by the company eight years ago.

According to the plans for the project, wood for the houses will be obtained from the short lengths of lumber usually ignored by lumber men, when cutting timber. The cement will be poured into a set of forms and by combinations of these blocks 12 different types of houses can be erected, it is asserted.

Purchasers of the houses will not be restricted to employees of the automobile manufacturer. The price will be fixed by "whatever the company can afford to sell them for," according to Mr. Ford.

Double Murder And Suicide Revealed In Cincinnati Home

CINCINNATI, OHIO, Oct. 26.—(By the A. P.)—What is believed by the police to be a double murder and suicide was discovered today when the bodies of John C. Hersh, Sr., 46, a musician and church choir director, his wife, Martha Wilson Hersh, and their son, John, Jr., 13, were found in their apartment here.

All three had been shot through the head. The bodies were lying across a bed. A revolver was clutched in the father's hand. The police believe that Hersh shot his wife and son while they were asleep, and then lying down at their side, ended his own life. Detectives who investigated the triple killing advanced the theory that the father feared a collapse of his son's health. They said that he was wrapped up in the boy, who was an only son. Several days ago the boy contracted a cold, but this was not serious. The youth, however, had always been in delicate health.

Building Standards Board Is Appointed

COLUMBUS, Oct. 26.—H. B. Briggs of Cleveland, was elected chairman and T. P. Kearns of Columbus, secretary of the new Ohio Board of Building Standards created by the last Legislature, at a meeting held here today. Other members of the board were: Peter J. Dempsey, Columbus; J. J. Cavan, Cleveland; John H. Clemen, Akron; W. F. Groening and W. H. Dittoe, Columbus.

The law creating the board directs it to prepare and submit to the next general assembly new provisions for the present state building code.

Catholics and Jews Reply To Speech Of Klan Wizard In Texas

WASHINGTON, Oct. 26.—Replies were issued here today on behalf of the National Catholic Welfare Conference and the executive committee of the Assembly of Orthodox Rabbis of America to the address delivered at Dallas, Tex., yesterday by Dr. W. H. Evans, Imperial Wizard of the Ku Klux Klan, outlining the Klan's attitude toward the Catholics and Jews.

Father John P. Burke, general secretary of the Catholic conference, declared Dr. Evans' statement regarding the Catholics in America had made the issue clear cut, adding that "it is for Americans to decide whether they will stand with their country or with the Klan."

Challenging the Klan to a joint debate, Rabbi Simon Glazer of the Great Synagogue of New York declared the question at issue was whether Jewish Americans are to be considered Americans or, according to the Klan, whether they must first be converted as Americans.

The statement reported in today's press as made by W. H. Evans, Imperial Wizard of the Ku Klux Klan, said Father Burke's statement, "revealed without further question the Klan's intolerance for the negroes, Jews and Catholics. Up to the present, in spite of statement and evidence to the contrary, the Klan has denied that it persecuted any of the above named."

Evans stated that to the Catholic hierarchy of the United States, the President of the United States is subordinate to the priesthood at Rome; that the parochial schools of the country are a proof of "divided allegiance on the part of Catholics." He offers no proof of these statements. He cannot offer proof.

"The Klan, through its official representative, sets at naught the Declaration of Independence, the Constitution of the United States and the constitution of every state in the Union. According to the Klan the

British Premier Warns Poincare On Attitude

PLYMOUTH, ENGLAND, Oct. 26.—(By the A. P.)—The British prime minister, speaking here tonight before 5,000 delegates of the Conservative party convention, sounded a warning to the French Premier M. Poincare, to consider "for himself for his nation for us and for the world" three times he refused the invitation, extended by the British government to the allies to accept American participation in conference for a settlement of the German reparations question.

Declaring that the position was grave, he considered it inconceivable that anyone could refuse to take advantage of such an opportunity.

Another point in his speech, Premier Baldwin, who has a gentle way of making important pronouncements, declared with reference to the collection of reparations from Germany, that the amount of Germany's payments must be ascertained in the light of her present and future position and added significantly:

"Nor could we contemplate the breaking off of any part of Germany into separate states, for that would at once break the treaty of Versailles."

Effort to Enlist L. S.
How far Mr. Baldwin's statement satisfied the country remains to be seen; for much of the 90 minutes he gave to a carefully prepared oration he devoted to generalities. The most important news he gave was concerning the government's renewed attempt to form a conference with the United States participating, to consider Germany's finances coupled with the declaration that his cabinet has a definite policy thereon.

There were two or three other items of news, one of them being that the government intends to lay time all the sweeping plans for imperial preference, as far as they embrace a policy of protection, by declaring the government still was bound by his pledge that there would be no fundamental changes in the fiscal policy. During his address the premier also sought to drive a decisive nail in the coffin of the rumor that he was flirting with the idea of money inflation.

HERE and there above the roofs and gables, caves and steeples that are the skyline of New York, there towers an occasional church spire, a great, sensitive, kindly finger pointing to heaven.

The Church of the Nativity holds about just such a finger—but it rises from a snug, sleek hand.

An inmate of New York's most fashionable hotel would feel quite at home in the Church of the Nativity. There is the same rich simplicity in both, the same warm comfort; and, above all, the same exclusiveness.

But a threshold man would be as self-conscious in one institution as in the other.

A feeble winter sun, homeward bound on Christmas eve, peered through stained glass windows upon a scene of disorder not in keeping with the pinnacles it usually found in the rich shadows of these stately walls.

Crumpled paper, boxes and wood shavings were scattered everywhere. Bits of abandoned string, scrawled strange figures on the floor.

Rising above this confusion towered a plant fir tree, decked with the lights and colors of an Aurora Borealis. Tinsel and trinkets weighed its boughs. A young girl poised on a step ladder, draped a strand of silver on already overladen branches, then sat down awkwardly on one of the steps.

A woman, dressed too youthfully for her 40 years, and too tightly for her 150 pounds, turned slowly, surveying a dazzling ball held level with her eyes. As she faced the ladder she glimpsed other ornaments.

"Dilly," she reproved. "Dilly, for pity's sake pull down your skirt." She turned to a third feminine figure bounding over a box. "I don't know what skirts are coming to."

"There're not coming to the ground, mother, you can be sure of that," Dilly rejoined flippantly.

Dilly, otherwise Daffodil Gilliam, was pretty even before she learned that nature had adjourned to small round boxes. Twenty years old, she was 30 years witty, 40 years wise, 50 years worldly and 60 years cynical.

"I can't understand why our young women want to go around looking like chorus girls," Mrs. Gilliam complained irritably.

"Perhaps they're noticed the kind of men that marry chorus girls," Lella Thornbury remarked, looking up from a box of toys. At 30 Lella had left one marriage behind, carrying away court-ship and a modicum of war.

"There's something feverish, restless in her eyes, something deliberately attractive in her manner."

"I've two engagements before dinner," said Mrs. Thornbury, flustered, and I've got to go home and undress for the opera."

"I gave up the dance for this," boasted Dilly.

"But you all waste your time so heedfully," objected Mrs. Gilliam. "You busy, too, but my life is given to the service of others."

"What could be sweeter?" her daughter mocked.

"Nobility knows better than you that I've never had a selfish thought, Mr. Gilliam."

"Of the Gilliam Groceries, Inc.," interjected the girl.

"Mr. Gilliam says I'm far too good. Only yesterday I gave 500 pounds of coffee and sugar to the Salvation Army."

"And to-day," interrupted the incorrigible Dilly, "father jumped the price of sugar to 32 cents!"

Mrs. Gilliam saw the futility of further argument.

"One gets precious little reward, I can tell you," she said with rising emotion. "I sent helpful thought from the Bible to all Mr. Gilliam's employees! Now there're no strikes, and the man that got the content with your wages is leading the strikers."

She rummaged in the toy box to conceal her agitation.

"Where's the Star of Bethlehem?" she asked absently.

"It doesn't work, mother," explained Dilly.

"Are those your husband's men on the front steps?" Mrs. Thornbury asked after a moment's pause.

"Oh, no," said Mrs. Gilliam. "Those are people from the sweet shops. They're starving, I hear, and Mr. Gilliam says it serves 'em right."

By this time she had found the object of her search—a large, brilliant star-shaped ornament. "What's the matter with the Star of Bethlehem?" she inquired.

"Oh, the usual," said Dilly. "Who ever heard of the lights working on a Christmas tree?"

"But this must work," Mrs. Gilliam declared firmly. "Mrs. Tice had it made to order—of Parisian diamonds. It cost $200."

"All right, it's better than nothing," said Dilly, taking it from her mother and clambering up the shaky ladder.

"Well, I'm half dead and there can't be any more presents," droned Mrs. Thornbury, reaching for her wrap. "I'd give my left hand for a ginnet."

"Not here," exclaimed Mrs. Gilliam a bit shocked.

"Why not? We've had almost everything else."

"Mother's so mid-Victorian," whined Dilly. "And ministers are finding they've got to do something to make church-going attractive. What do we get out of it now? I've heard of preachers who go in for dances and movies and draw crowds, too. Who wouldn't go to church to get a squirt at bougie Fairbanks?"

She clambered down the ladder, having hung the star at the top of the tree. Light from an opening door drew attention to a small, stout mouse-like man, a grizzled creature who bowed his way apologetically, his arms filled with bundles.

"Good Lord," expostulated Mrs. Gilliam. "More presents?"

"Mrs. Tice brought them," he explained. "She and Mr. Jerry Goodkind. They're coming right in."

"Oh, Mr. Barnaby," said Dilly. "One star won't light. Will you see if you can fix it?"

"One moment—" The sexton was hurrying back to the door, free of his armload. The Gilliams could wait. Mrs. Tice was much wickerier. With a servile bow Mr. Barnaby opened the door.

New Coats

If you "worship" style—if you are fascinated by luxurious fur trimmings—if you are attracted by exquisite embroideries—if you are captivated by sumptuous cloths—if you "dote" on deep, rich, mellow color-tones—if you are wishing for a coat or wrap that combines all these things you most desire—no need to look further, for your most enthusiastic expectations will be far surpassed when you behold these models—tomorrow!

Gorgeous wraps and coats for daytime and evening wear—sports types for sports wear—Only the most expensive quality, lustrous-as-silk fabrics—only selected quality, deep-furred pelts—only the most exacting workmanship—have been utilized in the fashioning of these models. They obey every command of Parisian designers in silhouette. Some are slim and willowy—many are tiered and flounced—others are draped. Fine brocade and silks line them.

Coat Dresses

Never before have designers created cloth dresses of such charm—dresses that are practical without looking the part. Styles that are delicately different—a point that commands them to the discriminating woman. Coat models so favored this season—belled or semi-belled styles—many straight-line dresses, ornamented with a decorative button at the side.

Proper obeisance having been paid to Mrs. Tice, Lella Thornbury turned to the man who had entered lastingly in her wake. Jerry Goodkind looked indolently on a shiny, yellow walking stick. It was a favorite possession, and at the same time man-about-townish. Jerry was 35, having had everything he wanted hadn't left him bored or jaded. On the contrary, he was well pleased with things in general, and himself in particular.

"We didn't hope to see you here, Mr. Goodkind," said Mrs. Thornbury, graciously.

"I met him in front of Tiffany's," explained Mrs. Tice.

"The most dangerous corner in New York!" Jerry said knowingly, with a smile. He was always smiling, sometimes carelessly, sometimes amusedly. But his eyes seldom joined in the smile.

"I lured him here by mentioning that Clara Jewett was helping us," continued Mrs. Tice.

Dilly saw a chance to retaliate. "Pudge Mr. Goodkind!" she called in strident bell-boy tones.

"Dilly!" rebuked her mother. "What a way of saying that Clara Jewett is helping us! Jerry's looking well today, isn't she, Mr. Goodkind? So young and—"

"Fresh!" added Jerry. "Well, good people, I must leave you," Mrs. Thornbury remarked, turning to her wraps. Jerry was at her side in a moment, helping her into an enormous fur coat, admiring it the while.

"Miss Jewett's in the chair room," she murmured to Lella as she left. "She has an engagement for dinner, but you notice she didn't say when the other door slammed. I don't think they ought to allow divorced women in the church."

"The church won't marry them," Mrs. Tice answered.

"That's the trouble," complained Mrs. Gilliam.

one of life's little jokes. The others joined in his merriment and the Rev. Everett Wadham, walking in upon the scene, found "the flower of his flock" in high good humor.

"Hello, everybody," she said in airy greeting, which "everybody" returned. "Who are those people on the church steps? A lot of dirty foreigners blocking the sidewalk."

"It's the grating Mrs. Tice," explained the chronically apologetic Mr. Barnaby. "The furnace room's under renovation and they're trying to keep warm."

"Well, let 'em try somewhere else," said Mrs. Tice, brushing herself in unpleasant recollection. "I don't mean to be unkind, you know, but they must be missions or something."

Prosperity To Continue If BusinessCo-operates With Coolidge"—Gary

NEW YORK, Oct. 26.—(By the A. P.)—Doubt that America now can be of much assistance in restoring European equilibrium, and faith that prosperity will continue in the United States if business men co-operate with President Coolidge, today were expressed by Elbert H. Gary, chairman of the board of the U. S. Steel Corporation, in an address before the American Iron and Steel Institute of which he is president.

"It would not be appropriate for us to take sides in European controversies nor to condemn individual attitudes or conduct," he said, "but we know the great seas are not wide enough to separate us from the influences of disaster in Europe."

"If the business men," he declared, "will do their part and co-operate with President Coolidge and his assistants in conducting their affairs in conformity with the high ideals which we believe actuate the President, there is no reason to fear there will be any serious financial or commercial disturbances during the next few months." Of the iron and steel industry, he said the calendar year would show considerable profit though not as much as the capital invested should produce.

Cautioning the members of the industry to be honest and diligent in their stewardship, Mr. Gary said: "We have a productive annual capacity of about 60,000,000 tons of steel, we employ a minimum of 600,000 men who, with their families aggregate a population of 2,500,000 persons; we transact a business of $2,000,000,000 or more annually."

COLDS THAT DEVELOP INTO PNEUMONIA

Chronic coughs and persistent colds lead to serious lung trouble. You can stop them now with Creomulsion, an emulsified creosote that is new medical discovery with twofold action; it soothes and heals the inflamed membranes and kills the germ.

Of all known drugs, creosote is recognized by the medical fraternity as the greatest healing agency for the treatment of chronic coughs and lung troubles. Creomulsion contains, in addition to creosote, other healing elements which soothe and heal the inflamed membranes and stop the irritation and inflammation, while the creosote goes on to the stomach, is absorbed into the blood, attacks the seat of the trouble and destroys the germs that lead to consumption.

Creomulsion is guaranteed satisfactory in the treatment of chronic coughs and colds, bronchial asthma, catarrhal bronchitis and other forms of throat and lung diseases, and is excellent for building up the system after colds or the flu. Money refunded if any cough or cold, no matter of how long standing, is not relieved after taking according to directions. Ask your druggist, Creomulsion Co., Atlanta, Ga.—Advertisement.

Freight Hearing Set.
COLUMBUS, O., Oct. 26.—The State Public Utilities Commission was advised by the Interstate Commerce Commission today that the proposed joint hearing between the commission and the Interstate Commerce Commission on the proposed increase freight rates on iron and steel products has been set for November 15 at Pittsburgh. Both the interstate and state rates have been suspended by the Federal and state commissions, respectively, pending final hearing. Protests against the proposed new rates were made by many iron and steel companies.

DR. KING'S NEW DISCOVERY

WASHINGTON, Oct. 26.—(By the A. P.)—David Lloyd George came to Washington today to find a friendly handclasp awaiting him at the official thresholds he crossed. There was almost no ceremony about this first visit of the sturdy little Welshman to the American capital. He spent the day making new acquaintances among the men who now guide American destinies, and in an hour's fireside chat with an old friend and colleague of the trying months at Versailles.

The people of Washington got only a fleeting glimpse of the distinguished visitor as he was whirled here and there on his round of calls in an army automobile, but whenever he was identified there came again the applause and friendly greeting that has met him wherever he has gone in this country.

Red Tape Is Cut.
Even the staid customs of the State Department yielded to the popularity of Britain's wartime premier and he entered Secretary Hughes' office on the first visit of the day with a hand clapping of a hundred or more clerks ringing in his ears.

Mr. Lloyd George met President Coolidge, all cabinet members and other high officials of the Washington government during the day. Both during his calls at the White House and the State Department and at the White House luncheon he later attended conversation was general in its scope, but it could not help but be tinged with the color of world events, in which the men with whom he talked are sharing.

At Mellon Dinner.
Again at a private dinner last night as the guest of Secretary Mellon of the Treasury Department at which several government officials were present the former premier had opportunity to learn informally, but at first hand, something of the view held by the men who now make up the American government on the problems that not only Europe, but the world is facing. And at no time today was the visitor required to address an audience.

Mr. Lloyd George arrived early this morning on his special train from Pittsburgh.

Present at the White House luncheon in addition to the President and his entire cabinet were Chief Justice Taft, Mr. Cullen, Admiral Elihu, chief of naval operations, Major General Hines, deputy chief of staff of the army, and C. Bascom Sloop, secretary to the President.

For two hours the guests engaged in general conversations, first in the state dining room and later in the adjoining room.

Pimpily? Well Don't Be

People Notice It. Drive Them Off with Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets.

A pimply face will not embarrass you much longer if you get a package of Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets. The skin should begin to clear after you have taken the tablets a few days.

Cleanse the blood, bowels and liver with Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets, the successful substitute for calomel; there's no sickness or pain after taking them. Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets do that which calomel does, and just as effectively, but their action is gentle and safe instead of severe and irritating.

No one who takes Olive Tablets is ever cured with a dark brown taste, a bad breath, a dull, listless, "no good" feeling, constipation, torpid liver, bad digestion or pimply face.

Olive Tablets are a purely vegetable compound, mixed with olive oil; you will know them by their olive color.

Dr. Edwards spent years among patients afflicted with liver and bowel complaints and Olive Tablets are the most effective result. Take one or two nightly for a week. See how much better you feel and look. 25c and 50c.

DETROIT, Mich., Oct. 26.—Henry Ford is "for President Coolidge—strong." If he makes a sincere effort to enforce the prohibition law, according to a copyrighted story published by the Detroit Free Press, Mr. Ford said he was sure the incumbent of the White House could dry up the country if he wanted to, according to the story.

"If he does, I'm for him—strong," Mr. Ford is quoted as saying. "The President knows it is the right thing to do."

Expressing his own policy in regard to the enforcement of the 18th amendment, Mr. Ford reiterated his statement of a month ago that he "would order out the army and navy if necessary," to see that the law was enforced.

"Let the drinkers once know," the story quotes the automobile manufacturer as saying, "the government is really determined that the law of the land shall be treated with the respect American law must have, even if it has to build a few additional wings to Federal prisons, this country will become dry."

"Enforcement has been more thorough the last month it seems to me," he continued. "I give credit for that to the President. I'm for him so long as he insists on obedience to the dry law."

WAVE OF HOG CHOLERA
XENIA, O., Oct. 26.—(U. P.)—A wave of hog cholera, a shortage of ready funds which has prevented farmers from spending money for vaccine, is given as the reasons for the present epidemic of hog cholera in several years by Farm Bureau and other farm organizations of officials.

Thousands of dollars will be lost by farmers in and adjoining counties through the epidemic which has been spreading for the last two months.

Four Are Killed By Freight Train

ATTICA, O., Oct. 26.—Two men and two women were instantly killed at Attica Junction, one mile north of here tonight when the automobile in which they were riding was struck by a Baltimore and Ohio Railroad freight train.

The identified dead are Mrs. Petronella Andrus of Toledo, Mrs. Helen Andrus of Bucyrus, O., and Bert Kulis, believed to be a railroad man from Napoleon, O. Identity of the fourth victim has not yet been established.

"Potential Army" Is Asked By Dry Chief

COLUMBUS, O., Oct. 26.—Calling upon the "potential army" of more than 200,000 sheriffs, police officers and other officials to enforce the prohibition law, H. A. Dykeman, Federal division chief prohibition officer for Ohio, Indiana and Southern Michigan, today issued a statement declaring that otherwise there will be only 1,522 men—the number of Federal officers now available to engage in the work.

Two local officials for a "potential army," Dykeman said, which was intended by the framers of the law to aid in its enforcement.

Sore Throat, Chest Colds and Coughs Conquered Over Night

Just Rub on a Little Mustardine and Away Goes Backache, Headache, Pleurisy and Neuralgia

The minute you rub on MUSTARDINE for any pain, ache or soreness you'll know that all the misery and agony has started to go. It is very penetrating and won't blister.

Any druggist anywhere will recommend it; praise it; guarantee it. He will tell you that it is better than any liniment, poultice, hot water bottle or ointment.

A 20-cent box of this wonderful discovery will do the work of 50 mustard plasters. In two minutes Earache, Headache, Toothache and Neuralgia vanish.

Tonsillitis, Bronchitis, Pleurisy and deep-seated Coughs go over night. Rheumatic suffers joyfully praise it for the way it speedily stops the agony and reduces the swollen joints.

After all other remedies have failed thousands have overcome the misery caused by Sore, Burning Feet, Corns, Bunions and Callouses. Ask for MUSTARDINE. 50 cents in yellow box.—Advertisement.

Cleveland Citizen Gains Thirty Pounds

"Several years ago I suffered a complete breakdown, but Tanlac pulled me back to good health and increased my weight thirty-one pounds," is the statement made recently by Al Fugitt, 2155 E. 21st, Cleveland, Ohio.

"Chronic indigestion, nervousness, cutting pains in my back, swelling in my legs, and general weakness, kept me unable to work for five months. In fact, I was barely able to creep around, and it looked like the finish for me."

"But Tanlac brought back my old-time strength and vigor, and I was soon able to get back to work. I could eat and sleep fine, my nerves were steadied, my back stopped hurting, the swelling left my legs, and my whole system seemed renewed. Again six weeks ago, when I felt run-down and had to quit work, two bottles of Tanlac put me back on my feet. Tanlac is a world beater."

Tanlac is for sale by all good druggists. Accept no substitute. Over 20 million bottles sold.

Harry Sinclair Summoned To Testify In Oil Probe

WASHINGTON, Oct. 26.—Harry P. Sinclair, who obtained the lease to the Teapot Dome, Wyoming, Naval Oil Reserve, which is being investigated by the Senate Public Lands Committee, was summoned today to appear as a witness before the committee Saturday. Members of the committee indicated that they wished to question Mr. Sinclair about various points in the contract.

SULPHUR CLEARS ROUGH, RED SKIN

Face, Neck and Arms Easily Made Smooth, Says Specialist

Any breaking out of the skin, even fiery, itching eruptions, can be quickly overcome by applying a little Menthosulphur, declares a noted skin specialist. Because of its germ destroying properties, this sulphur preparation begins at once to soothe irritated skin and heal eruptions such as rash, pimples and ringworm.

It seldom fails to remove the torment and disfigurement, and you do not have to wait for relief from embarrassment. Improvement quickly shows. Sufferers from skin trouble should obtain a small jar of Rowles Menthosulphur from any good druggist and use it like cold cream.—Advertisement.

COMING TO PORTSMOUTH, O.

Dr. Albert F. Snell

Of Snell's Private Sanitarium of Cincinnati, Ohio, will be in

Portsmouth, Ohio,
at the Manhattan Hotel
Saturday, Oct. 27th
One Day Only

The doctor treats all Chronic Diseases and Deficiencies of men, women and children. Many cases might be saved from a dangerous operation by going under the doctor's treatment.

All Diseases of Men,
Women and Children
Treated

Cataract and Stomach diseases are given special attention.

If you have catarrhal trouble go and be examined. The doctor's office should take advantage of the opportunity here offered. Go and have it settled in your mind. If your case is curable, he will tell you so frankly; if incurable he will give you his advice. No secret. No woman should fail to consult this specialist.

If you have Rheumatism, Nervousness, Dropsy, Swelling of the Feet or Hands, Liver Trouble, Heart Disease, Nervous Debility, or any wasting disease or weakness, Sallow Complexion, Dizziness, Dyspepsia, Indigestion, Constipation, Stomach or Bowel Disorder or Epilepsy, go and let Dr. Snell see you.

Hemorrhoids, Blood, Skin and Scalp Diseases, Piles and Rheumatism successfully treated.

Ladies

Who suffer from Sick Headache, Melancholia, Spinal trouble, special diseases, or having any deviations from health, caused by irregular menstruation, or disease peculiar to women, should consult this specialist.

Ovarian or womb troubles treated without the knife. If you have been deceived by any one to undergo a surgical operation for womb or ovarian difficulties, rupture or piles, do not listen to it any more. Have the matter settled by the lance, knife or needle before consulting this specialist.

Old or Young Men

It matters not what your ailment may be, or how long standing. If your future health and happiness are at stake consult this doctor specialist.

It matters not what the ill may be, it matters not what discouraging reports may have been made from any direction; it matters not if you have been told that you are incurable and need consult this eminent doctor and if there is the faintest thread upon which to hang a hope you will find there, with the treatment that will lead you to health, contentment and happiness.

SPECIAL ATTENTION given to Chemical and Microscopic examination of Blood, Urine and Sputum. Nervous and Mental complications. Address all communications to

Secretary of the Navy Denby, testifying before the committee today, assumed full responsibility for the transfer of the administration of three naval oil reserves from his department to the Interior Department. He also announced his full approval of the policy pursued by former Secretary Fall not only in handling of the naval oil reserve supplies at Teapot Dome, but also upon the two reserves in California.

After Secretary Denby had been excused the committee members entered into a general exchange of views during which Senator Walsh, Democrat, Montana, who has been active in the examination of witnesses insisted that the testimony so far presented had disclosed that there was no competition in the purchase of oil in the Mid-Continent field.

"It has been told that competition had been restored by the government selling its royalty oil to the Sinclair Crude Oil Purchasing Company," he declared. "It had previously been sold to the Midwest Company."

"The only difference I can see is that the Midwest Company is owned entirely by the Standard Oil interests while the Sinclair Crude Oil Purchasing Company is only half owned by those interests."

Eastern Star Voting Full Of Excitement; Convention At End

CINCINNATI, Ohio, Oct. 26.—(By the A. P.)—Delegates attending the sessions today of the Ohio Grand Chapter, Order of the Eastern Star, witnessed a contest for officers, which was said to have been one of the most exciting ever to have been waged at a convention of the order. The contests centered about the offices of Conductress and Associate Conductress, and resulted in the election of Mrs. Elizabeth Hood, Cleveland, as conductress and Mrs. Ella Vornheder, Cincinnati, associate.

Installation of officers took place this afternoon with impressive ceremonies which concluded the business of the convention. Ritualistic work was exemplified by Hamilton county members of the Eastern Star behind closed doors. Hundreds witnessed the ceremonies.

Tonight the last function of the thirty-fourth annual meeting was held at the Chamber of Commerce when the past grand matrons and patrons' association was host to the outgoing grand officers.

Church Is Damaged By Liquor Bombing

SALEM, O., Oct. 26.—Stirred by the bombing of residents of two prohibition enforcement agents here within a week, Columbiana county officials today offered a reward of $500 for the arrest or information leading to the arrest of the dynamiters.

The second bombing came early today when one side of the residence of State Prohibition Agent S. E. Conrad was blown away and the interior wrecked, and damage estimated at $3,000 done to the First Methodist Episcopal Church adjoining the Conrad property.

The residence of F. W. McKee, volunteer enforcement agent, was damaged by a bomb Friday.

Heiress-Bride Is Critically Ill

NEW YORK, Oct. 26.—Mrs. Harry Cooke Cushing III, formerly Miss Catherine Vanderbilt, and a bride of four months, is in a hospital suffering from a nervous breakdown. Her condition became so serious that several days ago blood transfusion was resorted to. She is resting comfortably.

Her illness was brought on by an experience last August in a lightning storm that played around a steamer on which she and her husband were traveling from Boston to New York. Mr. Cushing said today. He said she had decided to take the rest cure for a few weeks and that the blood transfusion was undertaken to combat the rundown condition in which she found herself.

Enthusiasm for America

LYONS, FRANCE, Oct. 26.—Major Harcourt's trip to the United States filled him with enthusiasm for things American, and he is trying to pass on to his fellow citizens some of the impressions he gained. In a course of public lectures the mayor is describing what he saw in the United States.

Asserting that the whole world is tributary to American production, Mayor Harcourt produced, for the enlightenment of one audience, a mass of the latest statistics establishing the economic prosperity of the United States. In conclusion he pointed out that the world was in an economic corner which America clearly dominated by her wealth and the industry not only of masterly businessmen, but of generous persons whose friendship should be cultivated. Their ideal, he said, was to promote an accord among the three great world democracies, the United States, Great Britain and France.

ZANESVILLE TO EXPAND
ZANESVILLE, O., Oct. 25.—(U. P.)—The city council will probably pass, at the next regular meeting, an annexation ordinance which will take into the city practically every one of its industries, including the several tile and pottery plants in Brighton, the plant at Norval Park, two industries in Licking View and the three big tile, pottery and steel plants at Tilledale; also the thickly populated Westview residence section.

In the event the annexation is ratified by the county commissioners and the courts, to which appeal is almost sure to be made, the city's population will be raised to more than 40,000.

Bad Egg Case Given Whirl, Gas Masks Are Trotted Out; Taken Under Advisement

Evidence in the case of W. H. Frye, commission merchant, 909 Offshore street, charged with selling bad eggs to F. D. Howard, grocer, 2042 Walnut street, was heard by Judge McCall in Municipal court yesterday and then continued for further investigation by Edwin James, state inspector, now in the city.

Howard claimed that the eggs were spoiled when delivered to him on Oct. 10, but Frye insisted that the eggs sold and delivered to Howard were fresh and in good condition at the time of the sale on Oct. 12, a week before the time claimed by the complainant.

Inspector James testified that he handled the case of eggs in dispute yesterday and found 14 bad ones. A hurry call went out for gas masks when the eggs were brought into court during the hearing and offered as an exhibit, for it did not take court attaches and spectators long to detect that the "hen-trait" is now over-ripe to a certainty. The exhibit gave off such offensive odor that it was quickly ordered removed from the courtroom.

Boy Bitten By Rat

Charles Kirby, 11 year old son of Mr. and Mrs. William Kirby of 1815 Robinson avenue, will hereafter veil until a rat is dead before he starts carrying it around.

Thursday morning a neighbor found a rodent had been caught in a trap he set Wednesday and he showed it to the lad who immediately wanted to show his bravery by picking up the trap. The rat was not dead and twisted around far enough to bite the lad on the left thumb. Dr. Carl Braunlin attended the lad.

Wellston, Ho!

Miss Mildred Purdon, Miss Pearl Elchellberger and Wesley U. Ride-nour will be the speakers when the Flying Squadron from the Young People's Society, Christian Church, visit Wellston Presbyterian church this next Sunday evening.

Three Fingers Broken

Mrs. John Willis of 1722 Grant street had the misfortune to smash the first three fingers on her right hand while using an electric wringer yesterday. An X-ray at the Mercy clinic revealed broken bones in the three injured fingers.

Seventy-five steps a minute is the average walking pace for a man. Housing in London decreased between 1911 and 1921 by 533 separate dwellings. Milan used to be the style dictator before Paris.

Frye was represented by Attorney C. P. Higgins.

At Steel Plant

Roscoe Edwards of Ninth street has taken a job in the Portsmouth Works, Wheeling Steel corporation.

Critically Ill

Mrs. Elizabeth Dawson is critically ill at her home in Luensville.

Removed Home

Mrs. C. S. Gohlfron, who has been a patient in Hengstend hospital, has been removed to her home in Selotville.

WHY YOUR DOCTOR ADVISES TONIC AT THIS TIME OF YEAR

There are lots of people who seldom really feel their best at this time of year. Certain foods do not agree with them; they suffer from indigestion after meals; sleep poorly nights and wake up feeling dull, tired and often constipated. Frequently their systems are so run-down they cannot throw off colds and such wintry ills. As a result there are many needless days of suffering. Take a good tonic and build yourself up. Try just a spoonful of Dr. Thacher's after the next few meals and notice the quick difference in the way you look, eat, sleep and feel. Tone up your system and feel your best. Have rich red blood to keep you warm this winter. Druggists are authorized to return the small cost unless you are completely satisfied.

Chatfield Held In Big Bail; Partner Is Also Named In Bill

CINCINNATI, O., Oct. 26—George H. Beazell and William H. Chatfield, Jr., former Cincinnati brokers doing business as Beazell & Chatfield, appeared before Judge Thomas H. Darby in Common Pleas Court late today to answer to charges of embezzlement and obtaining money by false pretenses made in indictments returned by the Hamilton county jury earlier in the day.

The bond of Chatfield was fixed at $10,000 and that of Beazell at $15,000. They were given until next Wednesday to file motions attacking the indictments.

The two men were indicted jointly on 12 charges. Eight of these charges embezzlement, two charge conversion of personal property and two charge obtaining money by false pretenses. Beazell is separately named in two indictments charging him with forgery.

The firm of Beazell & Chatfield failed recently and is involved for approximately $1,000,000, it is alleged.

Film Plants Close; High Costs Blamed

HOLLYWOOD, CALIF., Oct. 26—The high cost of production of motion pictures, a problem yet unsolved, and the over-production of motion pictures at present, has caused a decision to close the Hollywood and Long Island studios of the Famous Players-Lasky Corporation for 10 weeks. It was announced here today by Jesse L. Lasky, first vice president of the organization. No new productions will be started after Saturday and the plants will be closed upon completion of productions under way.

Hits Prohibition In His Last Will

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 26—The Democratic City Committee of Philadelphia will receive the income of a $100,000 trust for a period of 10 years, federal, state or city does not endorse prohibition or the Volstead act, according to the will of Henry C. Laughlin, probated here. At the end of 10 years the principal is to go to a nephew. Laughlin left an estate of nearly $400,000, much of it to charity.

Dawson Gets Contract

Portsmouth Dry Goods Co's 7th Birthday Sale!

Seven years ago we opened this store, and right from the start the people of Portsmouth and vicinity recognized that this was a store long felt needed in this town. The longer we have been here the more they have been convinced that this store was a necessity to this community. They have also found that by buying here they save money either by getting more goods than elsewhere for the same price or the same goods for less money. Another advantage found is that they save time when shopping here as all prices are rock bottom, no dickering about reductions, but one price to all. We claim for the same quality merchandise you can save from 10 to 25 percent, and on some things even more. The reason is this: We purchase all goods for spot cash and by buying in enormous quantity we are able to buy at lowest prices direct from manufacturers, and when selling all our goods are sold strictly cash, no charges, no delivery system, no high priced fixtures or store furnishings, all of which reduces expense and enables us to sell for much less than other stores.

The people of Portsmouth and vicinity have realized this from the start and by constantly comparing our values with those of other stores have found that what we claim is true.

As time went on we were compelled to enlarge the store so that now we occupy one of the largest store buildings in Portsmouth, 88 foot frontage with approximately 18,500 square feet of floor space. All this we owe to the generous patronage of the people of Portsmouth and vicinity for without their patronage we could not have progressed as we did.

In order to show our appreciation for this we are inaugurating the most gigantic, spectacular and sensational price slashing anniversary sale Portsmouth and vicinity has ever experienced. A sale that has never been equalled and in many days to come will have no peer. Your dollar never before could buy or expect to buy anywhere what it will during this celebration. No restrictions whatever. The PDG. Company will continue to be the store for ALL THE PEOPLE ALL THE TIME.

A. STEIN & COMPANY
CHICAGO NEW YORK

Society

The members of the Ruth Sisters' class of the United Brethren church, taught by Miss Edna Steich, enjoyed one of its biggest meetings on Tuesday evening, when about 100 members assembled at the church for a dinner and social and business meeting.

The members of the Otterbein society served a nicely arranged chicken dinner, after which Miss Rose Cox presided, opening the meeting with a talk on "What Our Class Has Done in the Past Year." Miss Helena Adams' talk was on "What Shall Our Class Do in the Year Just Ahead?" The treasurer's report, by Mrs. Gladys Smith, was of much interest, and Miss Helena Adams gave a report to the effect that the paper fund had provided for four lepers during the past year. Mrs. Agnes Bouts reported that the hospital funds were coming in steadily, and the mission, her committee told of the support of a girl in the Christian school in Western Africa.

The girls particularly enjoyed the Rev. E. H. Daffey's talk on "What the Ruth Sisters' Class Means to Me." For a musical program Mrs. Edith Carson Brown sang "In a Garden," with Miss Ida Frick accompanying, and the members joined in singing several songs. Plans were completed for a Halloween party to be held on next Tuesday evening, October 30, in the church gymnasium, where all members of the church are invited to assemble and take part in the masquerade party as guests of the Ruth Sisters.

Gay young folks in grotesque costumes made merry in honor of Halloween last evening at the home of Miss Rachel Massie, on Jackson street.

Glimmering Jack-o'-Lanterns, black cats, flying witches on broomsticks and even shocks made an effective and appropriate background for the delightfully informal affair.

After the various discussions which occupied the time, a delicious luncheon was served by the hostess.

Among the guests were Miss Blanche Reed, of Newport, Ky., the guest of Miss Thelma Sargent; Misses Dorothy Cline, Grace Hackley, Thelma Resler, Edna Cole, Edna Tracy, Thelma Sargent, Beatrice Adams, Doris Stark, Emma Miller, Lolita Buckler, Florence Sharp, Mildred Harris, Edna Alcorn, Gladys Massie, Messrs. Gerald Vancsey, Herbert Rice, Curtis Vinson, Charles Frederick Arthur Guler, Edward Zeisler, Lawrence Kimble, Lefroy Vioches, Ralph Stevens, Fay Corwin, Frank Nash, Edward Gertz, Lowell Foler, William Guler, Clyde Thompson, Robert Mason, Garner Ashwood, Charles Mullin and Howard Cline.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Denton, of Sixth street, have as guests Mr. Denton's nephew, Edson Forsythe, and Tommie Bauman, of Lancaster, members of the Lancaster football team, who play at 11 S. today. Mr. Forsythe is president and Mr. Bauman is secretary of the team.

Fire Wipes Out Church

Portsmouth District M. E. Superintendent J. B. Hawk received word today that Lawrence Chapel, the M. E. church on Greasy Ridge, near Waterloo, Lawrence county, had been destroyed by fire. The church is near the Galia county line, in a rich rural section of Lawrence county. Rev. Thomas Jones is pastor of the church. The loss is only partially covered by insurance.

Judges Get an Earful
LONDON.—A father summoned to court at Pontefract for failure to send his 7-year-old daughter to school told the judges the justice administered was "Satan's" committed to an industrial school whereupon the father declared he would obey their mandates. The girl was kidnapped.

Any Boy Will Get A Real Thrill Out Of One Of These Items From Our Children's Store

Every Saturday there is a steady procession of parents with children going to and from our Children's Specialty Shop on the Third Floor. Now that the weather has turned chilly and apparel needs are urgent we have secured extra help for this department. You owe it to yourself tomorrow when buying clothes for the children to come to Anderson's Children's Store and see what it is here that draws so many parents and children every Saturday.

Boys' Oliver Twist Suits

These popular suits for youngsters of Tweed, guaranteed fast colors, have recently arrived and a large assortment will greet you tomorrow. Ages 3 to 8 years and the special price is $3.98.

Kaynee Guaranteed Blouses

Every mother knows the real service and satisfaction that Kaynee Blouses give and if it were not for their constant looking for something better than the best we would sell even more Kaynee Blouses than we do. But after a mother goes around she eventually comes back to Kaynees forever.

Kaynee Blouses are guaranteed to launder and not fade. Prices are $1, $1.25 and $1.50.

Kaynee
Blouses for Boys

Boys' Raincoats, $5.00

It's coming time of the year now when rain will come and you can't keep boys in. There is just one thing to do, and that is buy them a guaranteed water-proof raincoat, turn them loose, and quit worrying. We have them in Black and Tan, with hats to match, at $5, $5 and $7.

Boys' Suits With Two Pairs Of Pants

It's mighty nice to have an extra pair of pants when John or Bill slides down the cellar door and leaves part of the seat on a splinter. All of Anderson's Boys Suits come with two pairs of pants. If you want to know the service and wearing quality of these suits just ask any parent who has watched his boy try to wear out one of these suits. We figure they are just about the best values in town for the money. Ages 6 to 15 years. Prices $10, $12.50 and $15.

Bobby Lee Hats, $1

Perhaps you've noticed those cute little top pieces the little shavers have been wearing and thought perhaps you would like to have one for your boy. If they were real attractive and desirable hats the chances are they were Bobby Lee Hats and came from Anderson's Children's Store. To make sure you had better come tomorrow with your boy and look over the Bobby Lee Hats and Caps. Price $1.00 and up.

Dr. Denton Sleeping Garments

As a sure protection against children's sleeping cold and catching cold at night nothing has ever been found that will equal Dr. Denton Sleeping Garments. They cover the child up and make them as snug as a bug in a rug. We have them in ages 1 to 8 years. Priced at $1.10 to $1.75.

A COAT EVENT Of Unusual Importance

For Saturday's selling we have chosen fifty high grade coats to sell at $63.50. Every one of these garments is of high grade material and is lined with fine silk crepe. Such furs as Beaver, Squirrel, Wolf and Fox collar them. They follow closely the new tube silhouette with set-in sleeves, but come in a variety of charming styles. Among them are a few handsome tailored wraps without fur collars.

The pelts used on the fur trimmed models are the best grade obtainable. This is really a wonderful opportunity for the woman who wants a coat trimmed in better fur and still doesn't want to pay $100 or more for her winter coat.

Choose from this assortment, Saturday, at only

$63.50

SPORT COATS

With or without Fur
$26.00

These Sport Coats at $26.00 represent the best values we have offered this season. They come in plaids, checks, stripes and plain materials, in swaggar, mannish effects with the side tie. Some have handsome collars of vicuna red fox. See them Saturday.

SUPREME COURT RULES AGAINST SCHOOL BOARD CANDIDATES; WILL CARRY FIGHT TO THE POLLS

McCowen Supporters In High Glee Over Decision

(By The A. P.) COLUMBUS, O., Oct. 25.—The State Supreme court Thursday, in a majority decision, upheld Secretary of State Thad H. Brown in denying five school board candidates in Scioto county a place upon the November election ballot.

The candidates whose names are thus ruled off the ballot are Conrad Roth and Dr. E. C. Jackson, for members of the Portsmouth city board of education; Smith Grull and James A. Folsom, for members of the Scioto county board, and D. C. Coleman, for member of the valley township board.

The court's opinion, which was concurred in by Justices Jones Day, Robinson and Matthews, held that section 5007, of the code, the secretary of state has final jurisdiction in determining all questions coming to him from county election boards in connection with primary contests. Chief Justice Marshall and Justices Wamsamaker and Allen dissented, they voting to allow a writ of mandamus against the secretary of state and the county election board that would have compelled the placing the candidates' names on the ballot.

The five candidates who appealed to the supreme court for relief, together with some half dozen other candidates, had been ruled off the ballot by the unanimous vote of the county election board because their petitions were faulty. The candidates then filed new petitions, and on the new petitions the election board divided two and two on accepting them, thus throwing the matter before the secretary of state for final determination. The secretary of state, after a hearing, ruled against accepting the new petitions on the ground that they were new petitions and not supplementary ones curing defects in the original petitions. Five of the candidates, not being satisfied with the secretary of state's ruling, sought the supreme court, with today's result.

When apprised of the decision of the court, Dr. E. C. Jackson was in a militant mood Friday declaring that he was not beaten yet and expressed his intention of at once launching a campaign to induce the electors to write his name on the official ballot at the election on November 6.

"You may say that I am a candidate," the veteran board member said today, "and my friends will be given an opportunity to support me which they can do by writing my name on the ballot."

Conrad Roth, whose name was also ruled off the ballot, stated today that he expected to confer with Dr. Jackson during the day and said that he may decide to join the latter and become a candidate. "In that event we will immediately start an intensive campaign which will be waged up until the polls close in hope that a sufficient number of our friends will write our names on the ballot to put us across," Mr. Roth said.

"This is the only avenue open to the other candidates ruled off the ballot, to continue the fight but they have not indicated whether they plan to conduct a campaign for written ballots."

The court's decision is regarded as a big victory for the supporters of Superintendent E. O. McCowen and a severe blow to the forces opposing him as James Folsom, of Green township, and Smith Grull, of Washington township, who lost out in their effort to run as candidates for county school board, are regarded as anti-McCowan. It was said today that the action of the high court probably means that Dr. Thompson of McDermott, and Carl Herms, of Wheelersburg, the two candidates of the McCowen forces, will have little or no opposition in the election on Nov. 6.

THE TOP O' THE SEASON

"Six to Four, and only one more quarter left! My! But that was a thriller." That's what you'll say about our swaggar topcoat styles, too—thrillers every one of them.

Their smart plaidings and striped effects so vividly reflect the dash and spirit of the game and of the season, that you won't be able to resist buying one. Nor will you want to, when you find that the prices range from $24.50 to $67.50.

The modish Top Coat fits in everywhere—that's why it is so essential, that you have one. And that's another reason why this announcement is of such importance to you. Roomy, mannish Coats, excellently tailored—belted or unbelted models, tube-like or flared, are fashioned of camel's hair fabrics, imported English tweeds and Scotch plaids. Many have fur collars, others depend on their smart lines for their swank. All are appropriate for street, sports and travel and all are reasonably Low Priced.

A GREAT ASSEMBLAGE OF DRESS COATS! The latest word in condtom has been well spoken here in the form of an event that challenges Winter purses and Winter winds. A Coat selling so Wide in its scope, so Low in its pricings, that it is almost astounding the remarkable value-giving opportunities that are presented.

THAT FUR-TRIMMED COAT You Have Been Wanting! The smart woman is seeing to it that her winter wardrobe includes a fur-trimmed Coat, and here is an opportunity to secure one at a remarkably Low Expenditure.

Ultra-smart Coats of soft deep pile fabrics, may be chosen in all the preferred winter tones. Viatka squirrel, kit fox and mole are some of the pelts represented.

The short Jaquettes are much in demand and the fashionably dressed misses everywhere are adopting them. They are so smart and lovely and go so well with everything. They, too, are so varied and priced reasonably.

WINTER MILLINERY OPENING

MUCH of the charm of the Mode finds itself revealed in the turn of a brim or the swirl of a feather this season. Off-the-face is the order of the Hat Mode—and the stove pipe hat that Paris is sponsoring finds itself charmingly adapted here.

TOMORROW, SATURDAY—is the Opening Day of Winter Millinery. You'll find here Hats of unfailing chic—the smartest of interpretations from the salons at home and abroad. We invite you to come in and view these really lovely chapeau. The prices, you'll agree are below your fondest expectations.

Slenderness Accentuated By Straight Lines Of Silk Frocks

The more formed women will be delighted with the newer vogue in Silk Frocks. One new model Satin faced Canton, straight and beltless, falls in graceful chic lines.

Trimnings of silk braid give it a tailored effect and an exquisite collar of Irish lace adds a touch of feminine charm. A Coat Frock has a smart simplicity that makes it suitable for most every occasion. They are all Reasonably Priced.

Poise And Correct Lines Depend Upon Corseting

Your entire costume may be exquisite and yet the effect completely lost if you fail to choose your corset carefully.

After a great deal of study and thought, costume artists designed new models that we are now showing.

They fit low in the bust and long over the hips, and are made of shell pink silk brocade with inserts of elastic.

CAPTIVATING LITTLE HATS for street wear. They're a bit higher crowned and have, definitely decided to turn up from the face. Snug, little Chinese Mandarin Hats with bright colors and saucer tassels are especially popular.

There are so many styles and so many colors, you'll soon find just the one to suit your own personality. In all, you'll find a very interesting display and it has already created much interest by all who viewed them.

If nothing prevents you, come in tomorrow, but, make sure that you see the display soon.

Special for Saturday

Six hundred ladies hats in all the good colors and new styles and snappy trims. $3.50, $4.50, $5.00, $6.00, $7, $8 to $15. Splendid selection.

You can be pleased here in both style and prices.

Middle aged ladies' hats in black, navy, blue and brown. Good line of children's hats. Ladies' coats, all colors, $9.98 to $65.00. We have a good line of coats at bargain prices. Look at our line of ladies' dresses before buying elsewhere.

Charles R. Forbes Divorced By Wife

SEATTLE, WASH., October 26.—(By the A. P.)—It was discovered here last night in a search of court files that Mrs. Kate Forbes on October 11 was granted a decree of divorce from Colonel Charles R.
Forbes, former director of the United States Veterans' Bureau, and who has been mentioned prominently at a hearing being conducted by the senate committee at Washington investigating alleged graft in connection with the awarding of contracts for government hospitals.

The suit was handled here with the utmost secrecy. Deputy Prosecutor Eugene Mechem, who represented the state at the hearing, said:

"As I recall Mrs. Forbes' testimony, she accused Forbes of preferring the company and society of others to that of herself and their ten-year-old daughter, Marcia. She stated that he neglected his home to a greater extent than the traveling occasioned by his position necessitated."

At the meeting of the Woman's auxiliary of the All Saints church, held Thursday afternoon in the home of Mrs. Harriett Russell, on Fifth street, Mrs. W. S. Oldfield presided. The devotionals were led by Mrs. Edward Horie. Mrs. Oldfield, Mrs. Willard Hastings and Mrs. Russell were chosen delegates to attend the annual meeting of the Woman's auxiliary to be held November 14 and 15 at Christ church, in Cincinnati. Plans were made for the next social meeting, to be held at the home of Mrs. J. Leigh Watkins, Sr., with Mrs. John Capehart, assistant hostess.

The afternoon was spent with designing fancy articles to be sold at the bazaar to be held in connection with the chicken pie supper to be served by the ladies of the church on the evening of November 7, in the parish house.

At the close of the afternoon Mrs. Russell served tea and wafers. Little Juna Neudoerfer was an interesting visitor at the meeting.

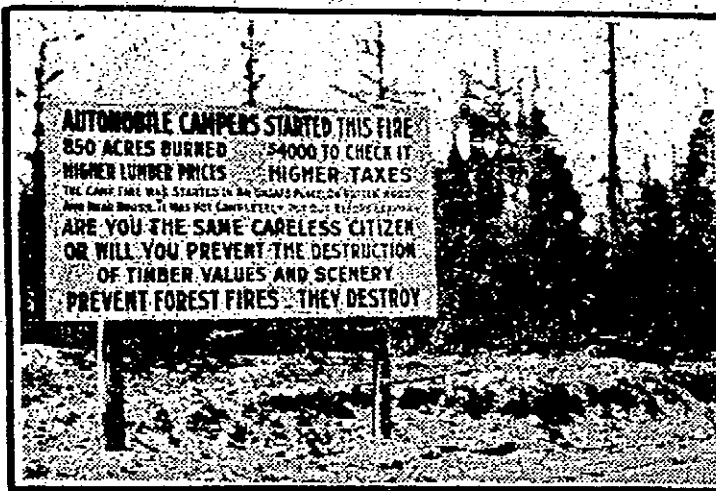

The next regular meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. W. S. Oldfield, on Ninth street.

One of the prettiest parties of the Halloween season was given last evening by Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Weber at their hospitable home, 2114 Vinson avenue, when they entertained a group of friends with a delightful masquerade card party.

The decorations inside and out were suggestive of the season, corn fodder and Jack-o-lanterns being arranged on the spacious veranda, while the interior of the pretty home was artistically decorated in Halloween colors. Yellow and black crepe paper were used as drapes on the windows and as portiers between double doors, while the candles were topped with witches and broomsticks. Bowls of fluffy yellow and white chrysanthemums were also placed at vantage points throughout the rooms. The guests were admitted at the front door by A. J. and John Weber, young sons of the hosts who were dressed as pages. Much merriment was caused as each guest arrived, one more comical than the other. Miss Irene Thompson was given a prize for the prettiest costume, while Mr. J. R. Weber received the prize for the most comical costume, he being dressed as "Huckleberry Finn."

Claude Sommer, who was dressed as a bashful country girl also came in for his share of praise. After the masks were removed the guests were told to follow a string which led them through the witches' hollow where each received their fortune. The den was presided over by little Ruth Weber, dainty little daughter of the house.

A Lesson In Fire Prevention

Here's a sermon in fire prevention far better than any fire marshal or fire chief could preach. This sign, erected by the U. S. Forestry Service in Kanab National Forest in Idaho, shows the havoc one careless camper unwittingly wrought. It ought to be a good reminder to others.

hold, who was cleverly dressed in yellow and black, crepe paper.

Later tables were arranged for cards and the remainder of the evening was spent in playing euchre and bridge with pretty trophies for high and low score. During the evening the guests were refreshed with apples, candy and sweet cider and at a late hour they were served with sandwiches, doughnuts and hot coffee, by the Misses Katherine and Alice Weber.

Those enjoying the pleasures of the evening were Mr. and Mrs. Joe T. Evans and son Paul and daughter Doris; Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Johnson and son Kenneth; Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Orthmeier and son Harold and daughter, Mary Katherine; Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Weber, Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Weber and son Bobbie and daughter Ruth; the Misses Irene Thompson, Alice Weber, Martha Comblent, Margaret and Eva McCaffrey, Messrs. McMahon, James Weber, Bruce Payne and Claude Sommer.

Boy Thrown From Horse

Donald, 12 year old son of John Caraway of Wamsley, suffered a broken right arm near the shoulder and concussion of the brain Thursday afternoon when he was thrown from a horse on his father's farm. The lad was brought to Hempstead hospital last evening. Today his condition was much improved. At first it was thought that his skull had been fractured.

DON'T FAIL TO SEE IT!

THE FAMOUS FLORENCE HOT BLAST HEATER WILL BE DEMONSTRATED

BY MR. R. F. GILLIVAN

ON THE SIDEWALK IN FRONT OF OUR STORE

Saturday, Oct. 27, 1923

This is the most talked of heater and wonder stove of the age for the burning of slack, saw dust, soft coal, wood or hard coal. In fact any kind of fuel.

What It Will

Do

The No. 151 or No. 73 will heat 3 or 4 ordinary rooms all winter on 3 tons of slack or lump coal.

The No. 153 or No. 75 will heat 5 to 6 rooms all winter on 4 tons of slack or lump coal.

Remember, the Florence heats the floor and a penetrating heat is felt 5 or 6 feet in all directions from the stove on the floor.

Remember

The Florence will burn all the smoke and gases and you eliminate all the offensive parts of the fuel.

Be Sure You See It.

The Florence holds fire for 48 hours and a steady even temperature is maintained, not red hot one minute and cold the next, an even flow night or day, no rolling out of bed into a cold room with a FLORENCE in your home.

No Dirt Inside Or Outside
The House

The Florence distributes heat like a furnace, and located as it is in your living room it eliminates traveling up and down stairs and operates on 1-3 the fuel.

No Smoke, No Soot, No Dirt, Everything Consumed

Let us show you this wonderful heating device, burning the cheapest slack with as nice results as if you were burning natural or artificial gas.

It will enable you to realize that you can burn any kind of fuel without any soot accumulating in the pipe or flue, it is the only absolute smoke consuming stove that has ever been invented.

OUR GUARANTEE. If by operating the stove according to our directions you find at the end of the season any soot in the pipe or flue we will make you a present of the stove and refund the money you paid for it. No other dealer would dare to make such an offer.

If the fire pot cracks or burns out in 5 years we will replace it with a new one free of charge. The reason is the Florence burns out the fuel while in other stoves the fuel burns out the stove. It is the only jointless ash pit base with full radiation on the market. It is the only one that has ever been made. The result is that as a fire keeper it is in a class by itself, and will be a perfect fire keeper for 25 years.

The Player-Piano that is all but human

WHEN the great Beethoven, emulating nature's own music from bird and brook, gave to the ages the beloved Pastoral Symphony, it was the natural result of genius constantly aiming for the purest and best in musical expression and succeeding through ceaseless toil and willing sacrifice.

Today the incomparable music of Beethoven and other masters is enjoyed as never before because it may be rendered on instruments inspired by the same true motive and produced by the greatest craftsmen with the same tireless zeal.

The Baldwin Company at its very inception dedicated itself to the production of instruments as good as the human mind can conceive. For half a century, Baldwin's one thought has been to build incomparable pianos and player-pianos, and users of these instruments say that it has attained this high ideal.

Come in and hear and try any Baldwin-made piano or player-piano without obligation. Descriptive booklets free.

Youth Admits Theft; Committed
Robert Howard, 17 years old, Olive Hill (Ky.) youth, arrested a week ago by railroad detectives following an investigation in connection with numerous thefts of tools and many articles of wearing apparel from the lockers of workmen at the N. and W. shops, was adjudged a delinquent at a hearing in Juvenile Court to-day and Judge Gilliam ordered him to the Lancaster Reform School.

Following his arrest, the lad from time to time confessed to many thefts which aided the officers in recovering many of the stolen articles which the court ordered restored to the owner.
The boy took advantage of his employment at the shops to commit the larcenies and, according to the officers, he is the most confirmed youthful thief that has ever come under their observation.

Yard Engine Hits Touring Car

Miss Dentrice Evans, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harvill Evans, 1005 Fourth street, had a narrow escape from injury about 11:30 this morning when an N. & W. yard engine struck the touring car in which she was riding, the scene of the accident being Hutchins street and the railroad crossing.

Miss Evans had driven down Gallia and intended to go north on Hutchins. Instead of waiting on Gallia street, she started across one of the tracks and stopped to wait until a freight train had passed. Miss Evans had her eye on the freight and failed to see or hear a yard engine approaching on the track on which her car was resting. The yard engine was setting in cars on the several tracks east of the N. & W. freight station.

The yard engine had come almost to a stop before it struck the machine, the only damage being a crumpled fender. Miss Evans escaped with a severe scare and shaking up.
Conductor J. M. Dalley was in charge of the yard engine.

There is a fly farm in London where the pests are deliberately bred, as a means, however, of studying methods of exterminating the species.

OBITUARY

James Molen

Local friends received word Thursday evening of the death of James Molen, who passed away at his home 535 Third street, Newport, Ky., following an extended illness due to hardening of the arteries. He was well known in this city, as he had frequently visited at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Earl C. Chason, of Seventeenth street. He was eighty years of age and, in addition to his wife, Mrs. Mary Molen, he leaves six grown children to mourn his death. They are Mrs. John Radcliffe, of this city, Mrs. John Radcliffe, of Louisville, Ky., James, Charles, Earl and Mrs. Stewart Huddles, of Newport, Ky., all of whom were in his bedside when he died.

Mr. Molen was one of the most prominent and highly respected citizens of Newport, and was a popular member of the G. A. R. at Covington, Ky. He was a kind and loving husband and father, and will be sorely mourned not only by his family to whom he was intensely devoted, but by many people in his own home town, as well as in various other places where he was quite well known.

The funeral will be held from his late home in Newport, Ky., on Monday afternoon at two o'clock and will be attended by many local friends of Mr. Molen and also by his daughter, Mrs. Chason. Interment will be in Evergreen cemetery, Newport.

Charles Schmitz
GRINNETT, Ky., October 26.—(Special to The Times).—Death about 10 o'clock Thursday night claimed Charles Schmitz, 63, retired grocer, who passed away at his home here after an eight days' illness of emphysema which followed an attack of influenza.

Mr. Schmitz, who was born and reared here was in the grocery business for a number of years. He retired five years ago.
Surviving are three sisters, Mrs. Mary Schmitz at home, Mrs. Jean Munick, of Ashland, and Mrs. Joseph Hollinger, of Buffalo, N. Y.

Mrs. Charles Norte
A telegram to relatives in Peoria from Chicago Wednesday announced the sudden death at a hospital in that city of Mrs. Chas. Norte, who had gone to Chicago three weeks ago to visit her nephew, Morgan Fitch, and family and to consult a specialist for an ailment of several years' duration.

On Wednesday morning Mrs. Norte was feeling unusually well and upon the advice of her physician, consented to the removal of her tonsils. In the afternoon of the same day she was taken to the hospital, where the operation was performed. It was discovered that the tonsils were infected and she peacefully passed away during the operation.—Manchester Signal.

WORDS of WISE MEN

A sluggard takes a hundred steps because he would not take one in due time.

Creditors have better memories than debtors.

Every man, however, wise, requires the advice of some sagacious friend in the affairs of life.

Education is a better safeguard of liberty than a standing army. If we retrench the wages of the schoolmaster, we must raise those of the recruiting sergeant.

It is not money, nor is it mere intellect that governs the world—it is moral character—it is intellect associated with moral excellence.

If happiness has not her seat And center in the breast, We may be wise, or rich, or great, But never can be blest.—Burns.

Count that day lost whose low, descending sun, Views from thy hand no worthy action done.

There is a past which is gone forever, but there is a future which is still our own.

They are slaves who dare not be in the right with two or three. —Lowell.

The secret of success is constancy of purpose.

It is necessary to try to surpass one's self always—this occupation ought to last as long as life.

Philosophy triumphs easily over past and future evils, but present evils may triumph over philosophy.

We confess our little faults only to persuade others that we have no great ones.

Books are the true levelers. They give to all who faithfully use them the society, the spiritual presence, of the greatest and best of our race.

Avoid, if possible, incurring an obligation which you have reason to believe you will never have it in your power to repay.

It is hardly possible to suspect another, without having in one's self the seeds of baseness the party is accused of.

What renders the vanity of others insupportable is that it wounds our own.

True eloquence consists in saying all that is necessary and nothing but what is necessary.

Tragic Toll of the Twin

Vices: Bootleg Booze and Reckless Speed, with Their Penalties of Destruction, Disgrace and Death, Exemplified by the Poignant Photographs Shown on This Page

"HERE'S LOOKING AT YOU!"

Clare Brummerbaum, Twenty-one, "Out" on a Police Station Bench After the Crazy Ride That Climaxed a Wild Night.

A Sermon in a Picture

Speed + Booze = Death + Disgrace

By JACK LAIT.

Above is a photograph, made with the cold, unemotional camera. No artist could match it; no human vision could be as comprehensive, no human hand as bitterly unsentimental.

The picture tells its own story. Examine it carefully and it will preach its own sermon.

The pretty, tousle-haired girl, twenty-one, a stenographer, lies unconscious on a bench in the squad-room of a police station in Chicago's "Black Belt." The sun is just rising. It is almost time for her mother, miles away in a cottage among the respectable dwellings of God-fearing people, to creep to her bed, smile, sigh and gently awaken her. That mother, whose work-worn hands sewed the pitiful finery which now lies wrinkled, soiled and torn, let the girl go out for a good time. Mothers realize that growing girls must have amusement.

What was the girl's idea of a good time? A tawdry, lawless dive called by suzerainty a "cabaret," on Chicago's North Side "Whiskey Row," where poison is peddled at robbers' prices, where rounders roister, where young girls with distorted notions of pleasure start and follow the path to disgrace, destruction, death.

Read the story to the left. It gives you details almost as pitifully, pointedly plain as the mud-smeared arms, the bandaged limbs, the tattered gown and the bruised, still lips of the senseless girl whose pretty blonde head rests on a pillow put there by a friendly policeman.

'Twas a wild night. The girl from the decent home and the brazen shouters who "entertained," and the prosperous man who had been sued for divorce and who had a fast car and who wanted speed, liquor and girls—they had gone forth to "hit 'er up" after guzzling the etherized alcoholic swill that is sold in such places as "genuine stuff, right off the boats."

The car was zigzagging crazily, witnesses testified. One of the girls had her arms around the married "sport," and she confessed she did not know where they were going, or why, or when. She didn't know his name—he was just the "good guy" who had paid for the "rotgut" and who owned the big, nifty car.

For that a man was killed; for that a half dozen wives, widows

"ONE killed; seven injured" read the terse headline describing one of Chicago's latest automobile smash-ups. The dead man, an innocent victim, was a white-haired, butcher and grocer. His son-in-law, driving the truck on which both were seated when the crash came, was hurt. So were two attractive young women, described as "cabaret entertainers." A girl companion, woefully cut and bruised, was still another casualty. Three men, one the driver of the "maiming motor car," also kept the hospital internes busy. All the women were in the joy-riding auto.

And the cause of it all, according to the Chicago police, was a "wild party," in which liquor largely figured.

It was shortly before six in the morning when the automobile which did the killing hummed along on its return trip from the notorious Derby Cabaret, at Erie and Clark streets. Eye-witnesses declare that it was traveling at a rate of sixty miles an hour. At East Thirty-seventh street and South Wabash avenue, an auto truck was proceeding—not swiftly.

Into the side of this truck the passenger car crashed. There was a sound of ripping wood and splintered steel, with other, human sounds—the terrified cries of women, the oaths and groans of pain from men's lips, the screams—of warning and horror—which early passersby uttered. From the debris of the two smashed vehicles, police and pedestrians dug the body of the aged dead man and the still living, though pitifully scarred, bodies of the survivors. They were in deplorable condition, the girls limp and unconscious, the men brutally lacerated, though not so instantly in need of medical attention as the women.

The police did not confine themselves to giving first aid to the injured. They promptly arrested Joseph Kyle, who had been badly cut and bruised. Then they locked him up at the Stanton avenue police station. At was he, said the police, who had driven the high-speed car. And they added that he obviously had been drinking—and his friends, too.

Kyle is a member of the real estate firm of Kyle and Bendfeldt, with offices at No. 1500, East Fifty-third street. He was booked on a charge of manslaughter. "Disorderly conduct" was alleged against the other members of his party.

Kyle's home is at No. 4814 Lake Park avenue. An odd twist given his part in the tragedy came to light the moment after he had told the police where he lived. He added, they say, that he would have had to go to court anyway that day, even if his car hadn't crashed into the truck. His wife, he admitted, had begun divorce proceedings, and he had been summoned to appear.

When the inquest into the death of G. C. Hudson, eighty, of No. 15229 Center avenue, Harvey, Illinois, victim of the motor's plunge, was begun, other facts were revealed. It was held at Wesley Hospital, to facilitate progress in the case; though the injured had been removed to the South Side and Provident Hospitals, with the exception of one man. They were under police guard.

The list included, exclusive of Kyle: Leslie R. Holer, twenty-nine, of No. 15411 Myrtle avenue, Harvey, son-in-law of Hudson, and driver of the truck (not arrested); Ruth Hazer, alias Taylor, twenty-three, of No. 1625 Prairie avenue, entertainer, at the Derby Cabaret; "Babe" Joyce, twenty-one, of No. 2708 West Adams street, also a cabaret entertainer; Clare, or Betty, Brummerbaum, twenty-one, of No. 726 Cornelia avenue; Alexander Smith, of No. 4851 Prairie avenue, employee of a steel and copper company, and C. J. Corrigan, of No. 1535 East Fifth street.

Miss Hazer, whose testimony was wanted, started for the scene of the inquiry, but fainted in a corridor of the Lakeside Hospital. She was able, later, to give her account of the joyride. "I've been singing at the Derby for about nine months," she said. "About two in the morning, two 'Johns' who had been hanging around the place took us for an auto ride. We were going to take Babe Joyce home."

"All I remember is that we were riding. I was leaning on the shoulder of the best-looking guy in the crowd. It was so comfortable I fell asleep. The next I knew, I guess, was when I was awakened by a — of a bang. I saw a lot of stars."

"Some of the girls were screaming. I was rolling around on the pavement. Well, now one of my front teeth is missing, and I look like —"

Pedestrians, policemen, hospital attendants—all commented upon the shockingly disheveled and damaged condition of the formerly comely girls in the "maiming motor car," after they had been hurled streetward by its ferocious impact against the truck.

Miss Brummerbaum, a vivacious, alert and personable blonde, underwent, perhaps, the most severe hardships. Her face and mouth were cut; her arms and legs scratched deeply in some places, actually wounded in others, while the frail evening frock which she had donned before accepting her host's invitation to a ride, was rent and slashed as though she had passed through a knife-lined tunnel.

Miss Joyce was also much the worse for wear when physicians turned their attention to her. A deep gash over one eye temporarily impaired her vision, the tire upper part of her head and temples being swathed in thick cotton bandages when the accompanying photograph was taken.

Miss Hazer got off rather more easily than the Misses Brummerbaum and Joyce, though, besides the missing tooth to which she referred, she was the victim of severe shock, the result of being thrown violently out of the joyriding automobile.

Kyle had given the police the name of "Joe Thompson," but he was recognized when he arrived at the station. When his case was called before Judge O'Toole, in the South Clark Street Court, his counsel filed a physician's certificate saying that he was too ill to appear. Kyle was placed under $10,000 bonds.

Doctors' certificates were also submitted to explain the absence of the three girls and two men who were with Kyle in the smash-up.

Statements by onlookers at the accident were unfavorable to Kyle and his companions. Policeman John McDermott, of the Stanton avenue station, was the first to reach the wreckage. "Witnesses," he declared, "told me that Kyle was zig-zagging all over the street while one of the girls had her arms around his neck."

"The truck had pulled far over to the east side of Wabash avenue when the Kyle machine crashed into it. He was supposed to be driving on the west side."

"A milk wagon driver told me that the Kyle automobile was speeding sixty miles an hour," said C. G. Elliott, a clerk at the Wesley Hospital.

While the bleeding girls and men were being treated, just after the collision, a "mystery note," which startled the finders, came to the police's attention. Written on a printed card of the Derby Cabaret, it was found in possession of "Babe" Joyce, then unconscious. It read:

"God only knows how I love you. The end is near. To you, sweetheart, it means nothing. To me, it is the end of all. Please, Honey, don't break any more hearts as you broke mine." ART."

With the card was another note. This said:

"Please, Art, forgive me. I tried to stay there in the apartment, as I am crazy about it. But, really, I just can't stay there as man and wife. I can't do that. Please forgive me, Art, as I think you are a wonderful man. Maybe some girls can do that. But, really, I can't. I'd rather work hard where I am. It may be a terrible place, but not as terrible as that would be. As ever, BABE."

"Babe" Joyce, Cabaret Entertainer, Who Thought Married Life "Too Terrible," Lying Unconscious, Swathed in Bandages, Following the Auto Smash-Up.

and mothers bow their heads in humiliation and despair; for that girls are branded, men are broken, inquests and divorce trials and speed-court cases choke the calendars. For that! For what?

These are sins not only against Heaven, but against the most elementary facts of mechanics and chemistry. Bootleg booze is rank poison. Fast cars are deadly instruments. And gasoline and alcohol do not mix. Driving is dangerous enough when everyone is alert, cautious, sane. High-proof moonshine is menacing enough when its addicts wobble about on their unsteady feet. But when a reeling, irresponsible, hysterical fool hurls a powerful machine through streets of civilization at momentum that would be criminal for an expert with a clear head, what can it mean? Has America lost its sense of balance entirely?

Whether you are in sympathy with prohibition or not, you cannot escape the facts. Synthetic, doctored whiskey makes men murderers and women maudlin fools. Avoid it. Shun it. Refuse it, no matter how attractive the offer. Is being a "good scout" worth such penalties as the girls in the picture above and the one which runs through this type and the one expressed in the tangled debris of two cars, and the coroner's "subject" and defendants, and the mother's broken heart must pay?

Former Sheriff Called By Death

WAVERLY, Oct. 26.—James Watkins, aged 58, former Sheriff of Pike county, died Wednesday afternoon at his home on Market street. He had been in poor health for several years. He is survived by a daughter, Mrs. Earl Fishback, of Portsmouth, and a sister, Mrs. Scoto Lope of Waverly. Funeral services were held Friday morning and interment was in the cemetery on Bear Creek.

Applegate Has Blood In Eye

With a chip two feet wide balancing on his shoulder and blood in his eye, Chick Applegate applied into the Times office Friday and says he will meet George Alexander in a six round bout for money, marbles or chalk. Applegate may be reached at 11 Glover street, Mr. Alexander.

MONTE ATTELL, A BOXER 15 YEARS, IS STONE BLIND

SAN FRANCISCO, CALIF., Oct. 26.—Monte Attell, once a star bantamweight, whose fame almost equaled that of his more gifted brother, Abe, former holder of the featherweight championship, is stone blind.
 Monte is now conducting a news-stand here, having been backed financially by old friends. Attell was in the ring fifteen years. One of his greatest fights was a 42-rounder against Frankie Conley at Vernon, Calif. Attell injured his eyes in this fight, and gradually lost his sight entirely.

Here Is Record

CHILLICOTHE, October 26.—A remarkable weather record has been connected with the construction of the new First National Bank building. Wednesday was the first fall day which has been lost as a result of weather conditions. The work was started on the eleventh day of May and for over five months until October 24, there has not been an entire day lost from this cause.

ACID TEST FOR MANY EASTERN FOOTBALL TEAMS TOMORROW

NEW YORK, Oct. 26.—Tomorrow with mid-season well under way the football drama will begin to shape itself for the climax. Many thrilling battles are scheduled and fans in almost every football center in the east will have the opportunity to cheer themselves hoarse.

No game promises to be harder fought than that between Penn State and West Virginia at the Yankee Stadium in New York and Yale meets a worthy opponent in Brown. The Navy and Princeton will walk the grids in Baltimore. Harvard and Dartmouth will come together in their yearly contest and the Crimson will have to move faster than heretofore, this season, for no team can rest through a game with Dartmouth. Of these four headliners the Penn State-West Virginia battle is receiving the greatest attention. Both are unusually strong. West Virginia has beaten Pittsburgh and Penn State overpowered the Navy. Both teams have high powered attacks.

Kansas City Wins Minor Championship

(By The A.P.)
BALTIMORE, Md., Oct. 26.—The Kansas City Blues are sitting atop the minor league baseball world today. They clinched their way to victory over the champion Baltimore International in the ninth and deciding game of the little world series at Oriole park Thursday afternoon.

The score was 5 to 2. Two home runs, one by Skiff, in the fourth inning, with Brannon on second, and another by Brief in the ninth, clinched it. The Blues won the minor league championship for the American association pennant winners.

The attendance was 3,103; net receipts $4,153.30.

Alumni Team Beat New Boston Hi

Too much Jimmy Taylor and Barbour Counts caused the Glenwood high school eleven to go down in defeat at the hands of the Alumni aggregation Thursday afternoon on Millbrook field. The Alumni won 19 to 6, the high school lads being unable to stop the speedy Taylor and Counts who circled the ends and hit the line for big gains. The Taylor-Counts combination also worked successfully on forward passes.

The Alumni team presented a strong lineup considering the inexperience of some of the players. Some never played football in their high school days. Several of them are now married and got into the game yesterday just to help out the former high school lads who played on the high school team the last couple of years. The end positions on the Alumni eleven were taken care of by two Republican candidates, Russell Middaugh, candidate for Clerk, and Robert Poole, candidate for Treasurer.

The feature play of the game was a 70-yard run for a touchdown by Jimmy Taylor who intercepted a high school pass on his 30 yard line. This score came in the second quarter and was the last of the scoring by the Alumni, the high school lads holding them safe in the last half. The first two touchdowns were made by Vernon Smith and Jimmy Taylor. Smith went through on a sneak after the ball had been carried down the field by wide end runs with Taylor carrying the ball most of the way. Taylor made his first touchdown on an end run. The lone point after touchdown, came after the third six points were added, a successful pass over the goal being made from Taylor to Counts.

The high school scored their touchdown in the third quarter. The high school lads worked the ball up the field on line bucks and a couple of dandy passes. Stalen carried the ball through the line from the four yard line. Norris failed to kick goal. The high school gridders again showed their own big weakness and that is the inability to break up interference and stopping end runs.

Play Gallipolis On November 3

Glenwood high of New Boston will play their next gridiron game on Saturday November 3, when they go to Gallipolis to meet the strong team of that place.

Jackson Hi In Waverly

The Jackson high school eleven played in Waverly this afternoon, with Waverly hi as their opponents. P. H. S. has a seat at the game to get a line on the Jackson team as P. H. S. goes to Jackson next week.

Match Race

LAUREL, Md., Oct. 26.—A race from start to finish is anticipated by turf followers when Sarazen, Mrs. W. K. Vanderbilt's unbeaten 2-year-old, meets Happy Thoughts, owned by Edward E. Starns, and also undefeated, in a match race at six furlongs here this afternoon. Earl Sande, fresh from his victory on Zev over Danyers, will have the mount on Sarazen, who is to carry 118 pounds. Apy Schmittinger will pilot Happy Thoughts, the latter horse will carry 116 pounds, an allowance being made for sex.

Shade and Wells Tonight

NEW YORK, Oct. 26.—H. Dave Shade beats Billy Wells, British fighter, in their 15-round bout at Madison Square Garden tonight. He will lay claim to the welterweight championship and defend it against all comers, his manager, Leo Algan, announced last night. Wells has been offered a bout with Roland Todd, English welterweight, if he wins tonight. Wells and Shade meet for the first time and it will be Wells' first appearance in New York.

THE SILVER LINING

CONGRESSMAN Theodore E. Burton, of Cleveland, is home from a visit to Europe where he went officially as a member of the international refunding commission.

Perhaps, no other public man holds such a reputation for steady and courageous fairness as Congressman Burton. He is not one to be swayed by any passing clamor, nor to take a stand for party and then seek a reason for it. Therefore his views of any public matter have a weight that is not carried by the utterances of such putative statesmen as were flocking across the waters the past summer.

So it is comforting to have his opinion that the European situation is in no wise as gloomy as it is commonly painted. Everywhere, except in Germany, he finds a distinct improvement. He is especially impressed with what he esteems the remarkable rejuvenation of Austria and Italy, sees Belgium almost normal and believes if the matter of German disorder and uncertainty could be composed on something like a permanent basis, the whole question of restoration in European affairs would quickly work out to a satisfactory solution.

SOME FUNNY THINGS

A VOTER was saying the other day that he didn't believe in a third term.

That is he was trying to persuade himself that if an individual had held a certain office for two terms, he should not be re-elected.

That argument is so preposterous that it is impossible to comprehend why it should be advanced. The fact that a man has held an office two terms ought to be an argument why he should be continued in it, not why he should therefore and for that alone be debarred from it. No official should be elected to a second term, unless he has acted therein honestly, faithfully and satisfactorily. If he meets all of these requirements he should be retained. For let it be borne in mind that an office is not a gift to be shifted frequently from one person to another, but a trust that the people require shall be sacredly regarded.

The Standard Oil Company is the biggest concern in the world, of its kind; it is reputed to pay the highest salaries to its big men, managers and superintendents. It keeps them in its service longer than any other enterprise. Its policy is to get a good man, pay him all he is worth and keep him. Would Standard Oil be the greatest concern, from a financial standpoint, in the corporate world, if it discharged every big man and a good man it got hold of, at the end of a two year or a four year service? It wouldn't be so much as a mere existence today.

Government is a bigger institution than Standard Oil. It isn't generally run as successfully because it doesn't choose men with an eye single to merit and because when it gets a good one it doesn't keep him until he wears out.

The bugaboo was devised by the old county gang to grease its own machine. It lived, it held its organization together by appealing to the ambition and cupidity of its followers, by passing the offices around. It could say to John Smith, hold yourself in line, work for the party, which is ourselves, and you will get your turn for sheriff. That held John Smith, his family and kin, to some extent his neighborhood, to "voluntarily" straighten out. Further it could say the same thing to James Black about the auditorship, to St. Perkins about the recordership and to divers and sundry hungry ones about the fifteen or twenty offices and always with the same effect.

The old gang has been thrown into the discard, the new one that is trying to organize and the old bugaboo of a third term should be sent to join it.

Size makes all the difference in the world. In a fight between American and British sailors, at Antwerp, one of the Britishers was stabbed to death. In England sending a fleet over here to blow up New York and exact an indemnity of seven millions? Not much. Yet that is what Italy did to poor little Greece, under somewhat similar circumstances.

Sometimes people get more than they pray for. New Jersey had been an arid waste for months, tens of thousands of workers were idle because hundreds of the factories had no water supply. Sunday, all the churches offered prayers for rain. Monday, one of the fiercest rain storms in the history of the state broke and by night the inhabitants were beseeching they be spared a flood visitation.

The prohibition bureau says the licensed productions of near beer by breweries has suffered an enormous decrease. It preserves a profound silence as to what is the state of production of the real article by the unlicensed home brewer.

One of the celebrated Mayos says doctors use the knife too freely and out of 150,000 in the country only 10,000 can handle it successfully. More operations are performed at Mayo hospital, perhaps, than in all others put together so this particular surgeon should know what he is talking about.

How often we have told you, folks, this is the finest climate on earth. Monday it snowed all around and about us, in North Carolina, Tennessee and Kentucky, to say nothing of the roaring west, while hereabouts it was pleasantly nippy.

New York=Day=By=Day

BY O. O. MCINTYRE

NEW YORK, Oct. 26.—Thoughts while strolling around New York: Heaven does help the workman—a truck with a radio. The army of minnieurs, masseurs and coiffeurs going to Millionaire's Row. To do up social while hopes for rough bouts with ten.

George Arliss without his monic. A drafty tug, too. Alligator gears a dollar a throw. You can buy a whole alligator for that. A silhouette school. And lectures on hygiene. Wonder if they can explain why subway guards are the healthiest men in New York.

The Hattens—Frederick and Fanny. Another child on Fifth Avenue. The gleam of a sanctuary lamp through the huge Cathedral doors. Fur shops bubble with trade. Minna from heaven—here comes Chic Sale and he always buys a soda water.

Why does a soda jerker walk away the second you start to give your order? Proud, regal women varying how to spend money. Colored shoes are de trop. The coach and four begins its season. The bucker must feel like a snip.

Club members out for a stroll. And in a bliny mood. A wood fire burns in Helen Gould's house. And outside an old woman harpist is playing "Ave Maria." A hard cool wind from the bay. Boots can have their Spring. I'll take the Fall.

Flying commuters with Gladstone bags. Old cables clapping their bony hands. Wish I could save more money. Sleek young men in their cute riding pants. A jumble of arrogant wealth and haggard poverty. A bank heralds free cigarettes for customers.

Everybody is talking about Duse. Or red tunnels. Building whistles too. Hairy eisted men swing out of ditches. Swinging their palms and whistling. Traffic cops change watch. Shop girls meet their boy friends. A rather nice world after all.

The highest paid head waiter in New York is Theodore. He is said to receive $30,000 a year aside from certain gifts from guests. He speaks French, German, Italian, Spanish, and, of course, a little English. He has the dignity and suavity of a diplomat.

The cane cruise among women get away to a fair start and then fall behind, but it has swept into popular favor again with a rush. All the ladies returning from Paris and London are carrying them and they are on display in most of the smart shops. Some are even carrying white-knocked sticks with evening dress.

The Martin

Of course there's no yaks in this country, but I st. the same well bet Kling feen, wanted at Benton Harbor. It's bad when the 'hunch' huncher's out. There's an fool like an old fool, or if he happens to be rich he's himself his only parallel.

Doc Koko's KOLUM

Autumn in the Garden

Like winds that blow from far, sequestered seas
With song of lonely waters gray and vast,

And undiscovered islands of the past,
Dian in the mist of vanished destinies,
The Autumn winds bring murmuring melodies

From pale horizons where the great hills massed
Like monks for rites of evening chant at last,
Farewell to summer and her mysteries.

Deserted are the aisles where beauty walked
In glowing raiment wrought of leaf and bloom,
And listened to the tales of bee and bird.

Alone where roses, with the summer talked
Or watching the weaving of her fragrant loom,
Pause now the feet of memory, unheeded.

—Arthur Wallace Peache.

Definition of a Bolt
A bolt is a piece of mechanism about 30 long or longer, with a bunch of iron on one end and a number of screws on the other. A nut, however, is very different. A nut is a hole with a square piece of iron around it, and wrinkles on the inside of the hole.—Purchasing Agents' Bulletin.

BERTON BRALEY'S DAILY POEM

LOYALTIES

By Bertion Braley

A man can love the ranges
And the peaks that pierce the sky,
With a love that never changes,
That shall hold him till he die;

As a man can love the spaces
Where the desert stretches bare,
Or the cool dim forest places
And the fragrant piney air.

A man can love the ocean
And the salt wind blowing free
Over all the troubled motion
Of the everlasting sea;

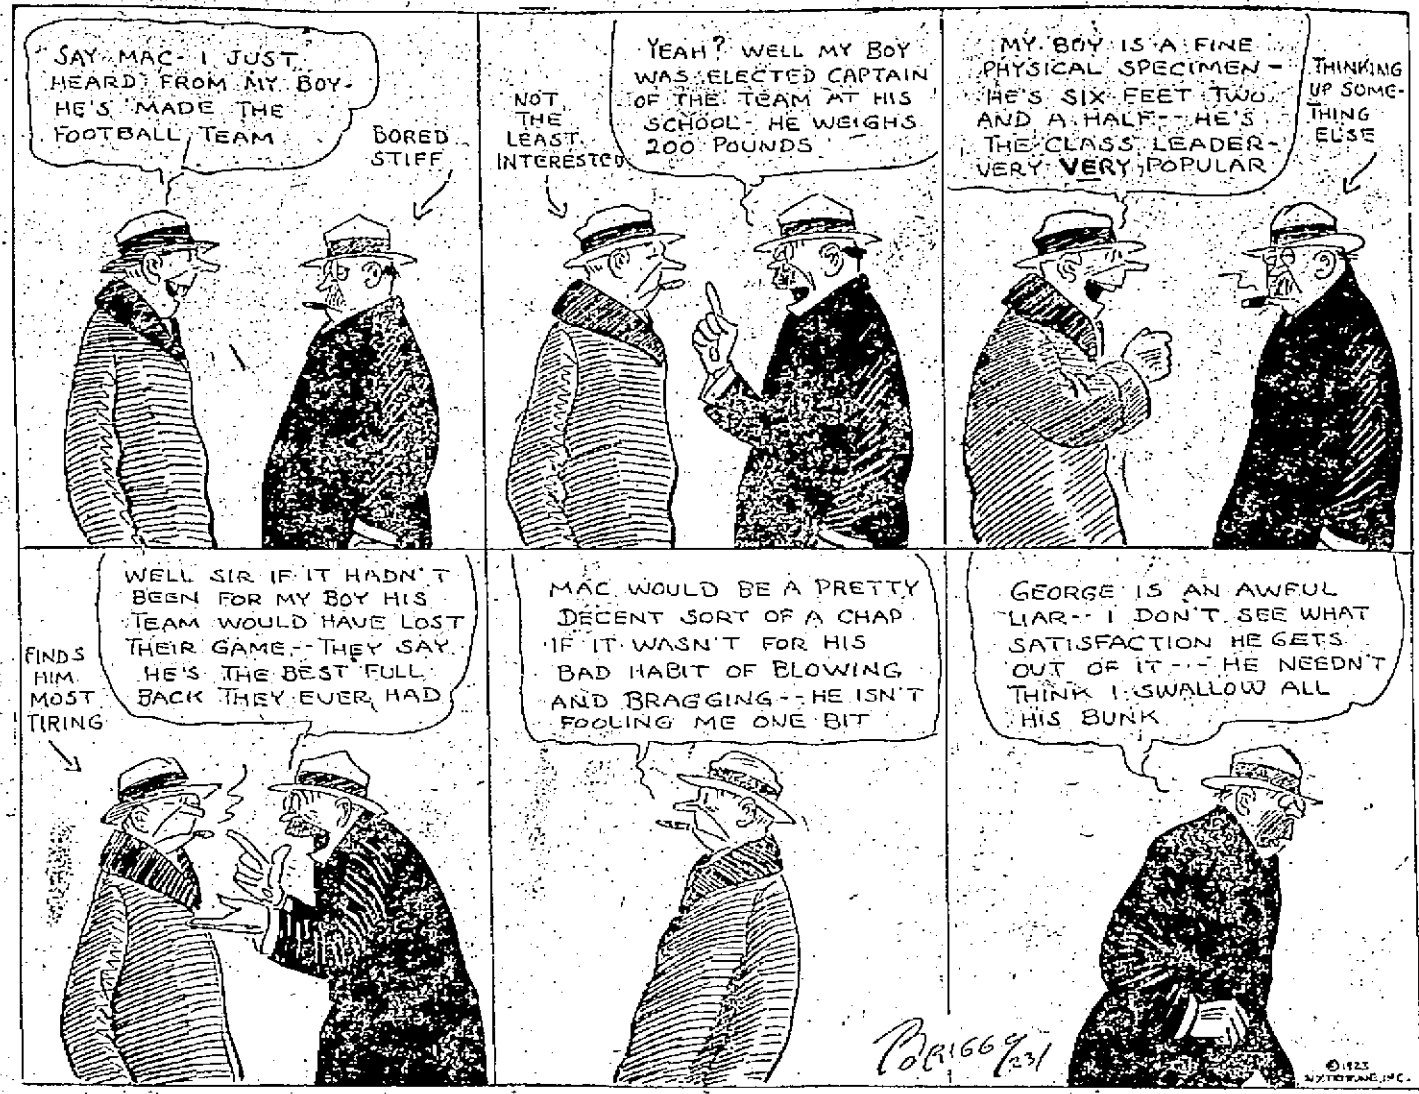

As a man can love the wonder
Of the lazy tropic night,
Or the flocks that crash and thunder
Underneath the Northern Light.

A man can love the human
Real devotion of a friend,
As a man can love a woman
With a love that knows no end;

So a man can love the galaxy
Of stars and planets far and near,
And the crowds which fill a city
That he's proud to call his own!

ME AND MINE—BY BRIGGS

Couldn't Bounce Him
That one has to pay the same fare whether going two blocks or five miles will never seem quite right to many of us. It certainly didn't to the farmer who boarded a car at C-square and asked the fare to G-square.
"Ten cents," said the conductor.
"Why, I can ride to the end of the line for that."
"Yes, but it will cost you the same to go to G-square."
"You ain't goin' to bunk me," growled the farmer. "Durned if I don't ride to the end of the line and walk back!" —Boston Transcript.

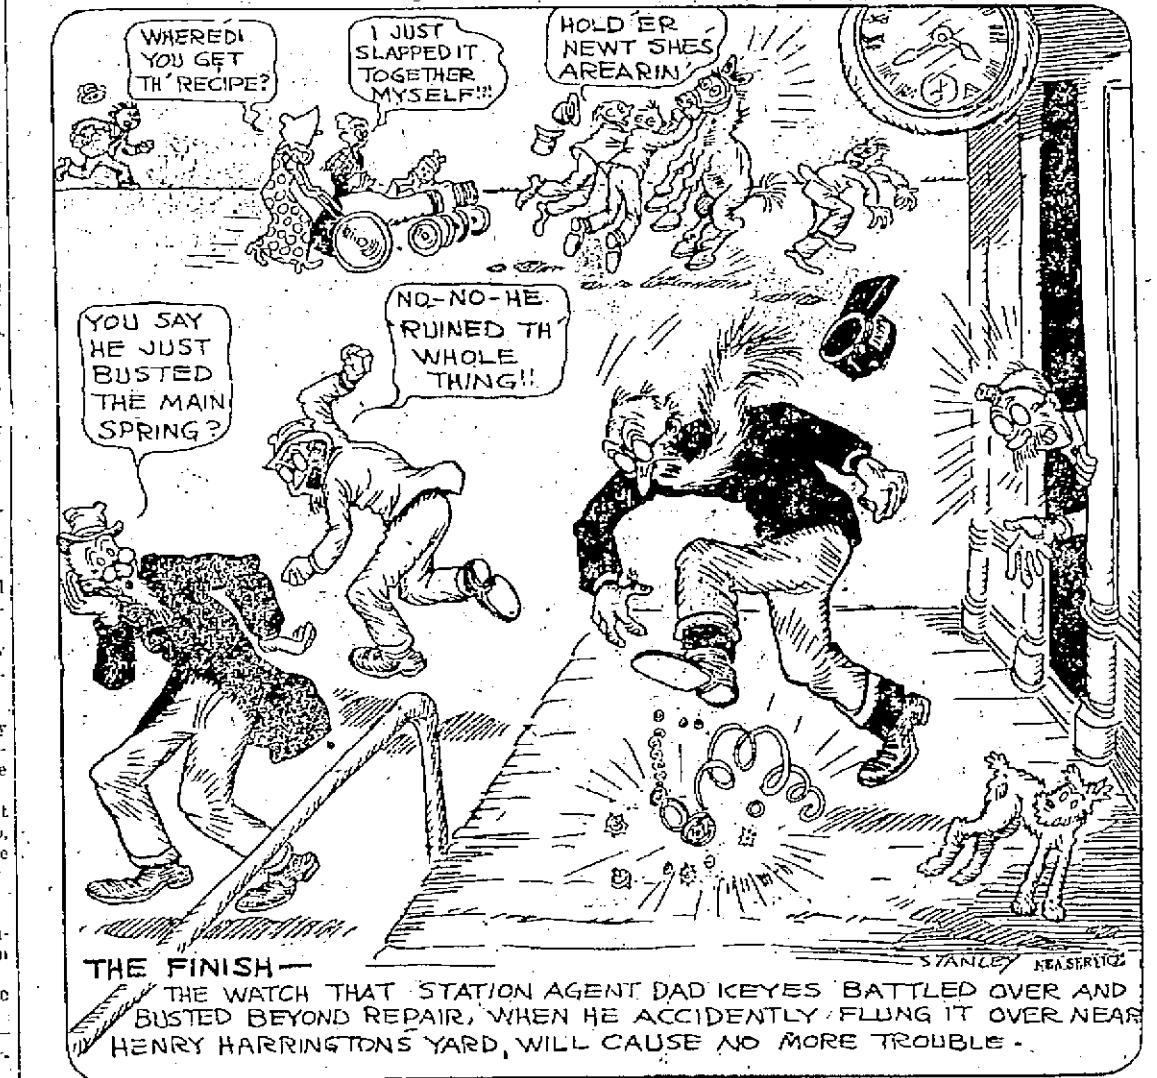

Inducement
A wealthy downtown importer was doing business with two banks, favoring, however, the larger Bank National Bank with the bigger share. The president of the other, an old Wall Street institution, asked Mr. Jones why his bank got the smaller end.
"Well," said Jones, "it's this way. I know all the boys at the Bank National and when I go there it's nice to have them say 'Hello, Tom,' and call them 'Bill' and 'Fred' and 'Jack.' And when I go into see the president, I say 'Hello, Al,' and he says 'Hello, Tom.' Well, Mr. Jones," said the bank head, in all seriousness, "if you will transfer your account to this institution, you may call me Herbert."

Who's Sorry Now?
Somebody asked—What's the difference between a Scot and a cowboy? He answered—You can get a drink out of a cowboy. And then he sat down.

Rapid Fire
Pat and Mike went hunting with a shot gun and only one shell. They came upon a squirrel and Mike was taking careful aim with the gun when Pat cried:
"Don't shoot, Mike, for the Lord's sake; don't shoot, the gun ain't loaded."
But Mike replied: "I got to, Pat; the squirrel won't wait." —Harper's.
